is a new world for all of us, we are pleased with the learning that is taking place each and every day. This has truly been a remarkable transition and we thank our staff and families for helping to make it smooth. We are all Bluejackets and we will get through this together and keep the learning going. Information on the Cambridge-Isanti Distance Learning Program can be found on our district webpage. Thank you for your support!

Students at Isanti

well to the new

Middle school: Evan Overson

Favorite Subject: Gym with Crudo. I like this class because Crudo always messes around with me and likes to say she is better at a sport than me, but I know that I'm better than her. She makes class fun. The best part of the class is playing basketball and being active.

Future Plans: Graduate from high school and go to a good college to participate in sports and earn a college degree.

Best School Lunch: Dominoes Pizza with a cookie!

Favorite out of school activity: Basketball and baseball

How I show RED behavior at school: I show RED behavior when I don't interrupt the teacher and I always help a friend when they have a bad day or when they're getting picked on. I always try to make them laugh or smile to brighten up their day.

Sunrise: Ruby Johnson always strives to make the best of any situation. She has a positive attitude with school work and life in general. She takes setbacks in stride and looks at them as a way to grow and learn. She even applies this to friendships; she doesn't get drawn into the drama and uses it as a time to reflect and grow. Ruby is a great example of acceptance to her peers and we are grateful to call her a Sunriser!

NBAHS would like to nominate Glenn Beck for Student Achiever. It's always a pleasure running into Glenn in the school. He always says hi and asks how you are doing. He is such a polite young man and works hard around the school. Glenn is in the work experience program and does a really great job. Not only is he polite and works hard, but Glenn is a friend to everyone in the school earning him a nomination in the 2019-2020 Snowdays festivities. In addition to all those reasons, Glenn is on the North Branch area bowling team, helping them make it to state in previous years. Glenn is an excellent example of a Viking.
