Well Honey! It has been 3 years ago today that you left me and joined our Savior, "Jesus Christ", in Heaven. Sharon, It is hard to believe that it has been 3 years. It still feels like yesterday to me. I miss you as much today as then. I still see cardinals and hear your favorite songs different times when I am thinking about you. Sharon, the kids and I miss you and think of you always! But we do know that 3 years ago, your pain and suffering came to an end.

P.S. "Have I told you lately that I love you!"
