

5-column grid

Wait for mental health treatment longer than deadline

Since the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the number of individuals in the custody of a county jail who are either unfit to stand trial or not guilty by reason of insanity has risen and the average wait time to get these individuals transferred to a state-operated mental health facility is surpassing the 60-day deadline.

Individuals waiting for admission

Days waiting

Source: Illinois Department of Human Services

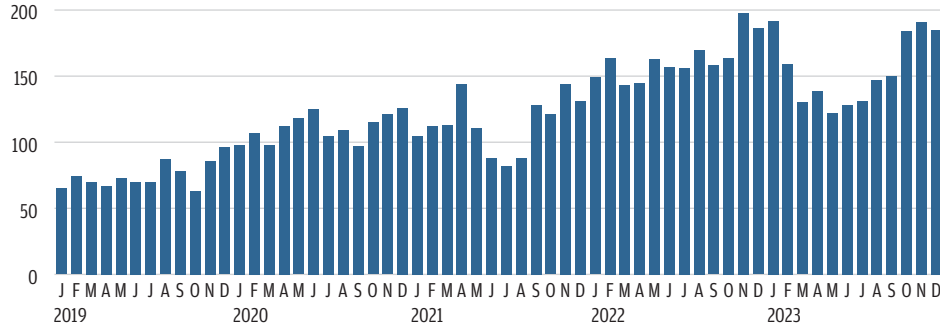

Lee Enterprises graphic

6-column grid

Wait for mental health treatment longer than deadline

Since the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020, the number of individuals in the custody of a county jail who are either unfit to stand trial or not guilty by reason of insanity has risen and the average wait time to get these individuals transferred to a state-operated mental health facility is surpassing the 60-day deadline.

Individuals waiting for admission

Days waiting

Source: Illinois Department of Human Services

Lee Enterprises graphic