Aging Partners

Aging Partners' Aging and Disability Resource Center (ADRC) is your free one-stop agency for community resource information and assistance for:

- People age 60 and over.
- People with disabilities of any age.
- Advocates, caregivers, family members and community service providers.

ADRC counselors are trained to help you make informed choices on a variety of topics including:

- In-home care options like housekeeping and personal care.
- Enrollment assistance for Medicaid and other economic assistance programs.
- Assisted living, nursing home and housing resources.

Call 402-441-7070 to talk to an ADRC counselor.
