Pittenger & Anderson (P&A) is proud to announce its recognition as the #12 ranked firm on CNBC's prestigious Financial Advisor 100 list for 2026. This marks the eighth consecutive year that P&A has been honored with a place on the list and stands as the only Nebraska-based firm to earn this distinction.

"It's an honor to once again be named among CNBC's top financial advisory firms," said Trey Pittenger, CEO of Pittenger & Anderson. "We have an incredible team, and we're all grateful for the trust our clients place in us. That trust is something we must earn every day."

The CNBC Financial Advisor 100 is compiled annually and highlights the top independent Registered Investment Advisors (RIAs) in the country. The 2026 ranking methodology, prepared in collaboration with data provider AccuPoint Solutions, evaluated firms on a variety of proprietary factors, including regulatory/compliance record, years in business, number of employees, registered advisors and the ratio to total employee number, total accounts, assets under management, number of states where RIA is registered, and country of domicile. The analysis began with 41,578 RIA firms and was narrowed to 1,015 qualifying firms before final rankings were determined.
