

Keeping trash out of the landfill

The city is considering banning all paper products (in blue) from the landfill over the next three years which would eliminate about 28 percent of the waste going there.

Source: City of Lincoln Lee Enterprises graphic