Press release re: Marshall Vogel/Tyler Goodrich

November 7, 2023

Media:

I have been retained by Marshall Vogel. Mr. Vogel first reported his husband missing on Saturday, November 4, 2023. At that time, law enforcement came to their residence and Mr. Vogel voluntarily consented to a search of their entire property and provided a verbal statement. On Sunday, November 5, 2023, law enforcement again came to the residence and asked for permission to search the property. Mr. Vogel again consented to the requested search and gave another verbal statement. A family member of Mr. Vogel also consented to a search of their property and has cooperated with law enforcement.

On Monday, November 6, 2023, law enforcement secured a search warrant for Mr. Vogel's property including his phones and other electronics. Law enforcement extensively searched the property and Mr. Vogel provided all phones and electronics to law enforcement.

After the third search, Mr. Vogel sought legal advice, which seems appropriate given the heavy law enforcement presence in his life, his children's lives and other family members.

On November 6, 2023, I sent a letter to the Lancaster County Sheriff indicating that I was retained by Mr. Vogel and that any further communication with Mr. Vogel needed to be facilitated through me. I asked that law enforcement contact me to discuss this further. I have not been contacted by law enforcement to date.

I did not state that Mr. Vogel would not cooperate with the investigation. Chief Deputy Houchin's statement that Mr. Vogel and his family are no longer cooperating with the Sheriff's Office is absolutely false.

Mr. Vogel trusts that law enforcement is making every effort to locate Mr. Goodrich and bring him home safely.

Very truly yours,
