

4-minute response

From 2011-14, Lincoln Fire and Rescue responded to 2,431 medical emergencies (gray dots) in areas outside of its 4-minute response time. Officials say by building two new stations and relocating two others, they can better cover the city and be prepared for growth.

