GOVERNMENT EFFECTIVELY TO MEET THE NEEDS OF THE EMERGENCY RELIEF IN RESPONSE TO COVID-19

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic, including the Delta and Omicron variants, the State of Wisconsin and the nation as a whole; and

WHEREAS, because little is known about Omicron currently, it is imperative for the public health and medical communities as well as the general public to remain vigilant to reduce potential exposure; and

WHEREAS, to maximize protection from COVID-19 transmission and vaccinated people should wear masks indoors even in areas of “substantial” or “high” COVID-19 transmission and unvaccinated people should wear masks regardless of community transmission level; and

WHEREAS, the number of coronavirus cases within Racine County has continued to swell and the level of community transmission continues to be designated as “high” and

WHEREAS, with increasing availability of vaccines and rates of vaccination, and effective safety and preventative measures within buildings and on worksites recommendations and guidelines of health authorities, supervisors are strongly encouraged to attend meetings in-person, however, it remains necessary to more effectively limit the spread of COVID-19 transmission to others, the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) urges that fully vaccinated people should wear a face mask when outdoors six feet from others. Unvaccinated workers are directed to wear a face mask at the public entrance while supplies last; supplies will be limited. Any person who declines or refuses to wear a face mask and does not have documentation showing that they are unable to do so may be denied entry to the building. Such persons may contact by telephone the agency or office they intend to visit and explore alternatives to entering the facility;

• Fully vaccinated workers may work at their desks and cubicles without wearing a face mask at the public entrance;

• The identity of each participating member may be authenticated, in a manner satisfactory to the presiding officer;

• During the meeting, all participating members may be simultaneously heard or read the proceedings of the meeting; and

• The public may contemporaneously monitor the proceedings of the governing body;

• The public may contemporaneously monitor the proceedings of the governing body;

• The public may contemporaneously monitor the proceedings of the governing body;

• For purposes of determining the presence of a quorum in meetings, any participating member present is considered present as if the member were physically present at the meeting;

• A meeting shall be preceded by the same or substantially equivalent public notice as would be required if the governing body were physically present at the meeting;
