

Nine schools could close

X = Schools in black recommended for closure

Facilities condition index or FCI weighs necessary deferred maintenance of a building against its estimated replacement value. Racine Unified has recommended the closure of nine of its school buildings, as well as the construction of five new ones. In addition to FCI, the administration also took into consideration each building's educational adequacy and demographics when deciding which buildings to recommend for closure.