A BILL TO IMPLEMENT THE CAMPUS FEE REVIEW SUBCOMMITTEE’S RECOMMENDED FISCAL YEAR 2019 REQUIRED CAMPUS FEES

WHEREAS, Student Senate Rules and Regulations (“SSRR”) Article I Section 3.7.1.4.1 requires the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee of the Finance Committee to collect information and to conduct hearings to review the Lawrence campus Student Required Campus Fees (SSRR Art. VIII § 4) annually, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee conducted these hearings on February 15th-17th, 2018, and completed its deliberations on February 17, 2018, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee opted to stabilize student services to promote their continued longevity, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee chose to place the Kansas Union on a four-year graduated fee schedule in order to cover the costs of deferred maintenance to the building, infrastructure improvements, and code compliance measures, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee decided to increase the Student Recreation fee to allow for a return to FY17 operation levels, and to allow them to be proactive in their maintenance of the building and proactive with funding future expansions, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee determined it would be best to send the USA Today fee out to referendum to allow students to determine the future of their newspaper service, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee assented to the proposed re-ordering of services by the Transportation Department and gave the fee increase necessary to facilitate that re-ordering, and

WHEREAS, the Campus Fee Review Subcommittee granted an increase to Student Health Services to allow for the expansion of student services, and to cover inflationary costs associated with the healthcare market;
