Dear Chandler Boese,

On June 7, 2017, the University of Kansas (KU) received your email of the same date requesting records access pursuant to the Kansas Open Records Act (KORA). As required by KORA, the University is responding to your request within the third business day following its date of receipt.

Your email states, in relevant part:

I request a copy of and access to the full report (including both the policy and the campus-specific recommendations) submitted by the Weapons Policy Advisory Committee to Chancellor Bernadette Gray-Little.

Your request is hereby declined. The Kansas Open Records Act, K.S.A. §45-221(a) provides in pertinent part that the public agency shall not be required to disclose the following:

- (20) Notes, preliminary drafts, research data in the process of analysis, unfunded grant proposals, memoranda, recommendations or other records in which opinions are expressed or policies or actions are proposed, except that this exemption shall not apply when such records are publicly cited or identified in an open meeting or in an agenda of an open meeting;

The University reserves the rights to assert any and all such exemptions that may be applicable.

You can learn more about KU's policies and procedures for KORA requests in our online brochure: http://provost.ku.edu/sites/provost.ku.edu/files/docs/KU\_KORA\_request\_brochure\_3-6-17.pdf.

Thank you for your attention and understanding.

Sincerely,

/s/

Jen Arbuthnot
Custodian of Public Records
