RE: Howard County Community Corrections Advisory Board

Dear Brad:

As you are well aware, at our September 19, 2016 meeting, and acting pursuant to Ordinance No. 2016-BCCO-33, the Board of Commissioners took formal action to remove you as our appointed member to the Community Corrections Advisory Board.

Thereafter, you disregarded our action and attended the January 2017 Advisory Board meeting; and last week you authored a letter appearing in the April 28th Kokomo Tribune identifying yourself as a member of the Advisory Board.

In light of your actions, the Board of Commissioners is obliged to publicly reiterate that you are no longer our appointee, based upon our September 19, 2016 removal action and also upon the Community Corrections By-laws which were recently amended to mirror our Home Rule Ordinance. This being the case, we request that you no longer attend any Community Corrections Board meetings as a member of that Board.
