10/28/24 - 01/23/02

Grandma in heaven you can see,
12 is what I now need to be.

I am growing up so fast, I pray
you see what I do at last.

Middle school is what I do, 6th degrees and cooking club is new.

Sleepovers with friends is the best, I only wish I had time to rest.

I think of you often as you can see, wishing you were still here
with me.
