IT'S OFFICIALLY HIAWATHA

The 25-foot Indian statue in Riverside Park was dedicated Sunday afternoon "in the likeness of Hiawatha." Harold Lee (center), commander of the La Crosse County Allied War Veterans Council, spoke at the dedication of the statue created by Anthony Zimmerhakl (left), art instructor at Longfellow Junior High School. Leonard Anderson (right), is chairman of the City-County Chamber Publicity Committee which commissioned Zimmerhakl to make the statue. The Indian has been the source of a dispute over its name, with some persons favoring Decorah.—Tribune Photo.
