

In Loving Memory

IN LOVING MEMORY OF RENEE MARIE STEELE

06/18/71 – 10/27/97

Years now twenty and still with days of darkness
So I light a candle for you
Filling the room with your light strength and happiness
You will always remain young and beautiful
Never be more than a thought away
Cherishing all the memories that live in our hearts to stay
So today I light that candle for you
Holding onto love and life to the fullest
Always filling our hearts with warmth for all next
