Speaker 1: Mobile 911, what is the address of the emergency?

Speaker 2: Hey, um, I'm calling about my nephew. He's off his medication for Lithium and I'm not sure who to call or contact. He gave away his phone- Caller too muffled to understand - downtown and giving his car away. Um, he's doing some bizarre things, and I don't know if that's uh... good or... He says he's just going to live for God and not going to have any kind of electronics. He's giving away his car right now. So, I don't know what to do. He's off his Lithium and is on SSI and he's canceled everything. And he's just going to be living on the street and he's about to leave now. So, I don't know what else to do. Um, I called 988, the hotline, and he's not suicidal but he is off his medication.

Speaker 1: Okay um... Do you need medical?

Speaker 2: He's on Lithium- he's bipolar so he's off all of his medicine.

Speaker 1: I'm asking, do you need medical for him, ma'am?

Speaker 2: It's in his mind. He's following God. He gave away his phone.

Speaker 1: Okay.

Speaker 2: He's trying to give away his car.

Speaker 1: So, do you need medical ma'am?

Speaker 2: Huh?

Speaker 1: Do you need medical?

Speaker 2: He's on Lithium.

Speaker 1: Do you need an ambulance for him is what I'm asking.

Speaker 2: Oh, no! He's just acting out so I don't know what he needs. I tried-

Speaker 1: What do you mean acting out? Is he um, making threats toward anyone? Being harmful? Besides just being off his meds?

Speaker 2: No, he's just... I mean the next step he gives away his car and he's just downtown uh... You know with everybody hanging out. He's got a nice home. I don't know what to do. Anyway, I just needed to figure out what to do. I called 988 and tried to talk to him. He's calm! He's not violent or anything. So, I guess I'll just let it play itself out.

Speaker 1: I can give you the number to the police department. I just can't...

Speaker 2: That sounds good.

Speaker 1: How old is he?

Speaker 2: I just don't know what to do. So...

Speaker 1: How old is he?

Speaker 2: Uh... 47.

Speaker 1: Ok, well let me give you the number to police department. Maybe they can advise. You can give them a call.

Speaker 2: Ok, thank you.

Speaker 1: Their number is going to be 251-

Speaker 2: I know it. Thank you.

Speaker 1: Ok, you're welcome.

Speaker 2: Have a good day.

Speaker 1: You too. Bye-bye.
