Army Rolls Out Easy 35-0 Win

Cadets March Over Villanova

WEST POINT, N. Y. —(U.P.)— The same old grinding Army team, spearheaded as of yore by Doc Blanchard and Glenn Davis, trampled a hopeful Villanova team, 35-0, in the rain at Michie Stadium Saturday for its first 1946 triumph and 19th victory in a row.

Capitalizing on the miscues of the quickly-disillusioned Wildcats, Army started its drive for national collegiate honors for the third consecutive year by sending the battering Blanchard 11 yards to a touchdown just two minutes and three seconds after the opening whistle.

Less than eight minutes later, Davis, big Doc's running mate, piled over for the second Army marker from the 4-yard stripe. The crashing Cadets rolled to three more touchdowns. Two went to Barney Poole, of Gloster, Miss., on passes from Arnold Tucker, and another to Herschel Fuson of Middlesburg, Ky., on a 3-yard plunge.

Blanchard added the placements after the opening touchdowns and Jack Markmuli, of Dayton, O., booted the other three as Doc took the rest of the day off with a bruised heel.

If this Army team is any weaker than it has been during the last two seasons, it is in reserves. Against the subs, Villanova, beaten 54-0 last year, managed to play evenly.

Blackbourn Gets All-Star Award

Lisle Blackbourn, Jr., former Milwaukee Washington high school star who performed brilliantly for the University of Wisconsin Saturday, was awarded a trophy as the most outstanding player in the state high school all-star football game played August 24. The presentation was made between halves of the Marquette-Wisconsin game by Willie Jones (left), West high school coach representing the Wisconsin High School Coaches Assn., and Rodney Pusch (right), representing the Madison Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor of the award. Blackbourn is shown with the trophy.

Uptown Coaches Meet Tuesday

Will Show Movies of Marquette Tilt

The first meeting of the 1946 Uptown Coaches will get underway at 6:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Park Hotel, it was announced today by the Madison Business assn., sponsor of the organization.

Movies of Saturday's Marquette game will be shown with a running comment by Coach Harry Stuhldreher after the dinner. Hank Casserly, Sports Editor of the Capital Times, will receive written questions of pertinence concerning the Marquette game from the members present and ask them of Coach Stuhldreher from the floor. Several members of the varsity squad will attend the meeting.

Formerly, with Sports Editor Henry J. McCormick and Columnist Ronnoy Quillin of the Wisconsin State Journal, will alternate in the handling of questions throughout the season's series of nine meetings. Besides the Marquette game, Casserly will handle Ohio State and Iowa. McCormick will take over for the California, Illinois, and Michigan games, while Roundy will fire the questions on the tussles with Northwestern, Purdue, and Minnesota.

Boilermakers Rally to Beat Miami, 13-7

LAFAYETTE, Ind. —(U.P.)— A light, speedy Miami University (of Ohio) eleven battle Purdue on even terms for three periods Saturday until the aroused Boilermakers drove 80 yards for a fourth period touchdown and a 13-7 victory.

Miami scored in five plays in the first period after Ed Weber blocked a kick on the Purdue 20-yard line. Bill Johnston plunged over from the one-foot mark and Bob Cole kicked the extra point.

Bob DeMoss opened a brilliant aerial offensive as Purdue scored in the second period, completing a 16-yard pass to Bob Heck for the touchdown. Ed Cody kicked the extra point from placement to tie the score.

A 42-yard run by Harry Szulborski in Purdue's final drive brought the ball to the Miami 3, where Ed Ehlers bucked through center for the final touchdown. In the third period the Ohio team staged a 72-yard drive; but John McKay intercepted a pass to end the threat — on Purdue's own 12-yard line.

In the second period, the Boilermakers drove to Miami's 16-yard line before the attack stalled and the visitors took the ball on downs on its own three-yard line.

Purdue piled up 11 first downs to eight for Miami and netted 332 yards from running and passing to 172 for the Ohioans.

White Holds Lead

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—(U.P.)—Outsider O'Neal "Buckshot" White, Greenwood, Miss., professional, clung tenaciously to his lead in the $10,000 Memphis Open golf tournament Saturday with a third-round 70 and a 54-hole total of 203, four strokes ahead of the field.

East Reserves in 7-0 Win

With a determined goal line stand in the closing seconds of play, the East high school B football team outfought the Rockford West B team to win, 7-0, on the East practice field here Saturday morning.

Halfback Bob Morgan scored the lone touchdown late in the opening period when he took the ball on a reverse from Quarterback Leonard Meyer and scampered around left end for two yards to score standing up. Rex Ryan kicked the extra point.

The visitors didn't start to click until late in the second half when they revealed a passing attack that carried them to East's goal line only to be held on downs.

The final count on first downs gave Rockford an 8-7 edge; Rockford gained one on a penalty, four on passes and three by rushing while East made all theirs by rushing.

Lodi Wins, 5-3, Over Sauk City

LODI—The Lodi Legion baseball team of the Home Talent League defeated the Sauk City Red Sox semi-pro nine, 5-3, in an exhibition game at the Lodi Fair here Saturday afternoon. Both teams got six hits and were charged with six errors against them. Lodi plays a second exhibition game against Springfield at the Fair today.

Caravello Meets Burdick for Title

Steve Caravello and Larry Burdick will start their match play-off for the Burr Oaks Golf course championship at 10 a. m. this morning. They will play 18 holes this morning and the final 18 this afternoon.

Caravello went into the finals with a 3 and 2 victory over Aaron Rubin, and Burdick defeated Jim Bitney, 2 up.

and Gold line.

Erickson had to rely chiefly on a passing game because of the inexperience and lack of sting in the running game, but was a prey for the fast charging Rockford line which swarmed in like a wave of angry bees.

Don wasn't able to take his time throwing a single pass and even many of them were well thrown. Many times he had to reverse his field after he hemmed in and try to run for the yardage.

Second Win

East opens its Big Eight campaign next Friday night against Janesville, a team that is likely to have a big advantage in backfield speed.

Rockford stopped East's running attack cold, and its fast charging line proved a great pass defense.

Rockford had a decided advantage in one department and that was pass offense, partly because its passer was given fair protection and partly because the receivers were a little more experienced in maneuvering into the open.

It marked Rockford's second game of the season and its second victory. Lineups:

Badger Harriers in 15-45 Victory

The University of Wisconsin cross country team trounced the Milwaukee YMCA harriers, 15-45, here Saturday. The Badgers took the first five places with John Munson and Jack Kammer breaking the tape in a deadlock in the time of 11.07 minutes.

The order of finish: Munson and Kammer, both of Wisconsin, tied for first; Richard Beck, (Wis.), third; Erwin Leverenz, (Wis.), fourth; Robert Smithman, (Wis.), fifth; Glen Eastlund, (Mil.), sixth; Howard Buchenberger, (Wis.), seventh; Sidney Tobabe, (Wis.), eighth; LeRoy Gilmore, (Mil.), ninth; James Borden, (Wis.), tenth.

TULSA EASY WINNER

WICHITA, Kans.—(U.P.)—Tulsa University spotted Wichita University a touchdown in the first seven minutes of play, then turned on the power to romp to a 33-13 victory in the opening Missouri Valley Conference game Saturday.

McFarland Can Cop Talent Baseball League Tilt Today

By JOE DOMMERSHAUSEN

McFarland's baseball team is an odds-on favorite to cop the 1946 Home Talent League championship this afternoon when it invades Middleton in the final round of the league's annual championship series.

The game will start at 2 p.m. as will the Monticello-at-Pardeeville tilt, the second game on today's prospective final league action for the season.

Should Middleton upset McFarland, and it is capable of doing just that, then McFarland and the winner of the Monticello-Pardeeville game would wind up in a first place tie, and bring about a single game playoff next Sunday.

Schneider Is Big Reason

The big reason for McFarland's rating as odds-on favorite is Lloyd "Snitz" Schneider, former University of Wisconsin outfielder who saw three years of service in World War II. Schneider is undefeated this season, having pitched 12 straight victories including three in the championship series.

Middleton's probable starting hurler will be Hank Acker, a slender 21-year old righthander who is credited with nine wins and two defeats this season. However, Manager Wendell Howes may again cast his lot with George Stratton, prep coach.

In addition to his mound prowess, Schneider also rates as the leading hitter in the championship series and perhaps in the league for the entire season. In McFarland's three series wins he has poked out six hits in 10 times at bat for a .600 average.

Four Other Titles at Stake

The Monticello - Pardeeville game is rated a toss-up with a keen mound duel in the offing between Pritz Haldiman, 22-year old Monticello farm youth, and Ken Warnke, rangy Pardeeville righthander. While Monticello appears to have a pitching edge, Pardeeville has the beter hitting average.

Four other league championships can be settled today. Jefferson can cop the Central Wisconsin League pennant by beating the Janesville Bruins in their two o'clock clash at Janesville; the Jeffs copped a 5-0 win in the first playoff game a week ago.

Juneau needs to repeat an 8-1 win of last Sunday over LeRoy to gain the Rock River League crown, and Redgranite can pack away the Central State League title by beating Ripon again. Adams-Friendship Bears and Westfield clash at Westfield in a playoff for the Central Tri-County League championship.

Waunakee in the Dane County CYO League, Sparta of the Monroe County League, Genoa of the Vernon County loop, New Lisbon of the Juneau County circuit, and Linden of the Iowa County Farmers League are included among the league champions already crowned.

Stuhldreher

game at Camp Randall may be gathered from the fact that eight of the boys who played in that game also played in the Wisconsin-Marquette game—six for Wisconsin and two for the Hilltoppers.

They are Stu Locklin, Robert "Red" Wilson, Bill Price, Lisle Blackbourn, Jr., Gene Evans and Bob Downing for Wisconsin, and Doug Gerber and Dennis Wright of the high school All-Star football for Marquette.

Blackbourn was voted the most valuable player in the All-Star game and received the Dave Schreiner Memorial trophy between halves Saturday.

Jim Regan, letterman in 1942 who was waging a battle for a backfield berth until hurt last Saturday, was carried across the field to Wisconsin's bench. His knee is in a cast.

As customary, a dog found its way onto the Camp Randall gridiron. This time it led the band across the field after it had played the National Anthem.

Marquette's strategy of quick-kicking as soon as it had the wind at its back looked good when Doug Gerber's punt was downed on Wisconsin's 11. But it backfired three plays later when Earl Mayes took a lateral and circled Marquette's left end to go 84 yards for a touchdown.

The officials were confused no end during the game. They had to hold a conference to decide on the legality of a penalty slapped on Wisconsin after Allan Elger quick-kicked to the three.

Clarence Esser, acting captain at the time, and Coach Stuhldreher "squawked" about the penalty to no avail. But Esser got them straightened around a few plays later.

Marquette had the ball on Wisconsin's 36 with fourth down and one to go for some unknown reason the referee signaled a first down. The lines were moved, but after Esser put in a legitimate complaint, the lines sticks were moved back. In the exchange Marquette lost a yard; however, it fumbled on its fourth down and Wisconsin recovered.

There were 12:14 minutes of the fourth quarter left before Marquette made its first down.

The best punt of the game was Gene Evans' boot in the last quarter. He had intercepted a pass and was downed on Wisconsin's three. He then put a lot of shoe onto his punt as it sailed to Marquette's 35.

Gene, incidentally, had quite a pass defense record, snaring three Marquette aerials to halt drives.

After scoring its last touchdown Wisconsin was caught without a kick-off specialist. Bob Reinebohm went in and skied a boot for 55 yards. Blackbourn's opening kickoff traveled better than 72 yards on the fly—with the wind at his back.

There was 19 seconds of the game left on the clock when Fullback T. A. Cox was downed in the arms of Marquette's goal posts, but the game ended before either team had started to line up.

Colonels Win Third Playoff Tilt in Row

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — The Louisville Colonels scored their third straight win over the Indianapolis Indians in the American Association baseball play-off finals by copping a 7-2 verdict Saturday night. The Colonels need one more win over the Indians to end the playoffs.

secondary, and raced 38 yards across the goal line. Gallagher's kick was low.

A recovered fumble on Pitt's 13 cleared the way for the visitors' third score. Protected by a screened interference, Young circled left end for the tally. Gallagher's kick was good.

A passing offensive produced an early fourth quarter score for the Illini. After Rykovich returned Ralph Short's punt to Pitt's 37, Paul Patterson lobbed a pass to Bill Heiss on the 27. Tom Stewart heaved to Patterson who dashed 21 yards for the marker. Maechtle converted.

Midway in the final stanza, Chick Maglotti climaxed Illinois' scoring by catching Depasqua's punt on his 25 and sprinting 75 yards for a touchdown.
