

Forecast for Thursday, July 16, 2026

Bands separate high temperature zones for the day.

NATIONAL SUMMARY: Heavy thunderstorms will occur across portions of Texas today. Flash flooding is likely due to the stationary storms. Spotty storms will rumble over the Rockies, the Southeast and the Mississippi Valley. It will be dry elsewhere as temperatures 5-15 degrees above average extend from Washington and Oregon to the Northeast.

©2026 AccuWeather, Inc.