POPE LEO XIV
First American Pope Statue

"Peace be with you all."
- Pope Leo XIV, May 8, 2025

The world rejoiced on May 8, 2025 when white smoke billowed from the chimney of the Sistine Chapel in Vatican City. There was a new Pope! Cardinal Robert Prevost took the name Pope Leo XIV, making him the first Pope from the United States.

The Holy Father is honored with the Pope Leo XIV, First American Pope Statue, an amazing likeness of this spiritual leader posed with his hands raised as he blesses the faithful. Handcrafted of artist's resin, this statue features intricate details, from the rich embroidered look of his stole and the buttons on his cassock to his golden cross. Painted by hand, it features a pedestal base graced with a blessing and the details of this significant moment in history.
