

A FINAL SIGNIFICANT COMMEMORATION

The World-first Silver fifty pence issued Celebrating the Birth Centenary of Queen Elizabeth II

A World-First: Only available from The Bradford Exchange Mint

Britain's most popular shaped coin makes its U.S. premiere!

Unique seven-sided shape represents the historic 7 decades of Queen Elizabeth's reign.

The Queen Elizabeth II Birth Centenary Silver 50p Coin combines two sublime portraits—the first time, the conjoined effigy of Elizabeth has appeared on a fifty-pence coin. Proof struck in 99.9% pure silver for the very highest quality, the result is a remarkable world-first, truly befitting the Queen.

A Masterful creation by two of the world's leading coin artists.

Sculpted with incredible detail by coin artist Arianna Cicconi, this exquisite edition celebrates the entire service of Elizabeth, from Princess to longest reigning monarch of the United Kingdom and Commonwealth. The ever-graceful Princess appears in stunning three-quarter profile, with deeply thoughtful eyes, while the Queen sits behind with familiar dignity and poise, connected to her younger self by lily-of-the-valley-the flower she loved most. Approved by Buckingham Palace.

The obverse of each coin bears the official effigy of His Majesty King Charles III, created by Jody Clark. Look carefully and you will see the initials "JC".

WHAT MAKES THIS A RARE OFFERING:

- The first time a double effigy of Elizabeth has appeared on an official fifty pence coin
- The first time Elizabeth has ever appeared as a young Princess on an official fifty pence coin
