

Deadliest roads in Santa Barbara County

80 of the 262 fatal collisions in the county, or 31%, involved alcohol and accounted for the deaths of 93 people from 2010 to 2018

101

66 collisions and 70 deaths – including 8 collisions and 8 deaths along the highway's ramps -- and the most fatal alcohol-related collisions, with 19 collisions accounting for 21 deaths

154

30 fatal collisions and 37 deaths, second among alcohol-related collisions with nine, including 10 deaths

1

15 fatal collisions and 17 deaths, four involved alcohol

166

14 fatal collisions and 17 deaths, was third with six alcohol-related fatal collisions, including 8 deaths

246

13 collisions and 13 deaths, two alcohol-related collisions with two deaths

135

12 collisions and 13 deaths, four were alcohol-related with 5 deaths

Picture: Fatal collision on Highway 246 in January. Photo by Mike Eliason, Santa Barbara County Fire