Prokofiev Prowess

January 30 at 7:30 PM

Capitol Theater, Overture Center

Ilya Yakushev, piano

Join the Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra for Prokofiev Prowess, an electrifying evening featuring guest pianist Ilya Yakushev in Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No. 3—a tour de force of virtuosity and relentless energy. The night opens with the graceful wit of Mozart's Symphony No. 27 and closes with Bizet's joyful Symphony in C.

BEHIND THE MUSIC

- Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was just 17 years old when he wrote Symphony No. 27 and completed it just days after Symphony No. 26.

- Ilya credits Prokofiev as "...the composer who walked me through the first few years of my professional career." His first-ever performance in the U.S. was Prokofiev's Third Piano Concerto and was also the piece that secured his victory in the final round of the 2005 World Piano Competition in Cincinnati, Ohio.
- Georges Bizet's Symphony in C was among the very first pieces conducted by Andrew Sewell as the Music Director of the WCO for his inaugural concert in 2000.
