

Production Control Coordinator

MPI Products, a leading manufacturer of metal components with plants in Indiana and Wisconsin and Mexico, is looking for the right individual for the position of Production Control Coordinator at our Wisconsin Division in Deerfield, WI.

This position is responsible for all networking and communications with assigned customers on delivery requirements/performance. This position plans and formulates production schedules to meet customer demands and shipping commitments. Determines recourse in the event of failures to meet schedules. Maintains and facilitates communication with purchasing, manufacturing, engineering, and customers to ensure raw materials, work in progress, and finished goods are meeting schedule demands. Maintains a professional relationship with customers.

Minimum Qualifications: 2 year degree or equivalent education in Production Control or related field; 3 – 5 years manufacturing experience/knowledge; General computer knowledge including Microsoft office products and experience w/ communicating w/ customers through links and websites; Read and write English; MRP or ERP knowledge. Preferred Qualifications: Previous communication experience with customers in the automotive, agricultural, or earth moving industries; Good problem solving skills and organizational skills; Knowledge of Plex Systems Software a plus.

We offer a competitive salary and benefits. Send resume noting the job title in the email subject line: hrwi@mpiproducts.com

EEO M/F/D/V