

The Madison Police Department's Violent Crimes Unit and Madison Area Crime Stoppers need YOUR help in identifying suspects involved in a major weapons violation.

On November 24th, at 8:42pm, Madison Police Officers responded to the 4500 block of Cottage Grove Road regarding multiple shots fired.

Officers found 45 shell casings, two damaged vehicles and damage to buildings. From the evidence collected, it is believed that there were two sides shooting at one another.

Several rounds entered into neighboring residences, missing one occupant by approximately 5 feet. Other people sought shelter upon hearing the rounds strike their residences. Several people were contacted by police and several apartments searched.

In addition, it was discovered that one round entered the bedroom of a sleeping child with the toddler's stuff toy shark taking a bullet.
