

The Madison Police Department and Madison Area Crime Stoppers need YOUR help in identifying suspects involved in a shooting incident.

On December 10th, at 11:28pm, Madison Police Officers were dispatched to the 2300 block of Allied Drive regarding a shooting of an occupied residence. Multiple people called 911 to report hearing multiple gunshots in the area.

Officers found 13 bullet casings and approximately 10 of the bullets fired struck a residence and traveled through windows spraying glass.

Home at the time of the shooting was a 42-year-old female, a 22-year-old male, and a 9-year-old male. Most were asleep when the shooting began and the female sustained non-life threatening injuries from the flying glass.

Unbelievably no one was struck by a bullet. The suspects are at large and have not been apprehended.

If you have any information regarding the identity of these suspects or information regarding this senseless act of violence, please contact Madison Area Crime Stoppers at 266-6014, or, on the web, at P3Tips.com.

Individuals contacting Crime Stoppers can remain anonymous and may be eligible for a cash reward.
