

The Madison Police Department and Madison Area Crime Stoppers need YOUR help identifying an armed home invasion and attempted homicide suspect.

On June 11th, around 6:00am, a 42-year-old man showed up at a Madison Hospital with a minor gunshot wound to the head. He never called police, but officers were dispatched to the hospital after he arrived with a graze wound to the head which required stitches. The victim told police he was shot in the head inside his McKenna Blvd home around 3:40am. The MPD's Violent Crime Unit is seeking to identify one of two involved suspects in this armed home invasion and attempted homicide. The victim fought with the intruder and he believes he inflicted serious facial injuries to one of the men. Please visit Madison Area Crime Stoppers on Facebook or madisonpolice.com to view the surveillance photos of the suspect.
