

SPRING GALLERY CYCLE:
ON EXHIBIT THROUGH SUN, JUN 2
RECEPTION: FRI, MAY 3, 6 - 8 PM

- GALLERY I Folks
Jerry Butler & Shelby Kahr
- GALLERY II Into the Light
Maryam Ladoni & Kayla Story
- GALLERY III *FUTURE HISTORY NOW:
A Retrospeculative*
Simone and Max

SIMONE & MAX

THE RESIDENT ORGANIZATIONS AT OVERTURE

APR 26, 28 Rusalka: Music by Antonín Dvořák
What would you sacrifice for happily-ever-after? A water nymph falls in love with a human prince. A witch agrees to make her human – but the spell will break if she ever speaks.

APR 26-
MAY 12 Ronald Dahl's Willy Wonka
Charlie Bucket's simple life is turned upside down when he finds a golden ticket: an invitation to the Wonka Chocolate Factory!

APR 26-
JUN 23 Uprooted: Plants in a Changing Climate
Five Wisconsin artists to exhibit new work focused on the diverse plant communities under threat in Wisconsin. Reception May 17th, with artist panel discussion at 5:30 - Exclusive brunch in the gallery with artists and their science advisors April 28th.

MAY 4-5 Symphony of a Thousand
Mahler's monumental Symphony No. 8 is John DeMain's 25th Anniversary season finale. 500+ artists. 8 soloists. 3 choruses. Don't miss it!!

MAY 10 Wisconsin Chamber Orchestra presents
Mary Mackenzie, soprano; Timothy Jones, bass
We begin our series finale with Shostakovich' Symphony No. 14, a chamber symphony in eleven movements set to poetry by Apollinaire, Garcia Lorca and Rilke. We conclude with the innocence and joy of youth celebrated in two charming suites by Bizet, Jeux d'Enfants Op.22 and Claude Debussy, Petite Suite.

MAY 11 Midsummer's Eve
As the days get longer, the dancing continues long into warm, starry nights. Watch the next generation of dancers take to the stage in an evening celebrating Kanopy Company 2.

OVERTURE.ORG | 608.258.4141