Like any herd; there are just fresh ones, some bred back cows, a half dozen dry cows and a few springing heifers and nice 2 yr. old heifers selling. They were raised in free stalls as heifers and laid in free stalls when dry. They stayed outside a lot. They were milked in tie stalls and on a good vaccination program. Cows are not all burned out and have a lot of potential left in them.

Also selling a group of Red & White cows from one herd; all free stall adapted and AI sired with some Registered. The farmer is going to quit by Christmas.

Farm Fiends: Bob & Mary take a lot of pride in their cattle, Bob done this all his life and is going to retire at the young age of 65. He is going to take care of his heifers and his farm land.
