

Strengthening Tribal partnerships through investment, opportunity, and collaboration

Partnering with Indigenous communities is central to how we live and work, grounded in mutual respect and shared growth.

Our commitment is reflected in our actions. The Wisconsin Line 5 Segment Relocation Project will invest millions in Native-owned businesses, provide wages for Tribal members, and include Native Americans in the Line 5 construction workforce.

Together, we can create opportunities, drive progress, and build a future that benefits everyone.

Visit enbridge.com/L5Wis to learn more.

Tomorrow is on.™

