

Innocor Foam Technologies located in Portage

is now hiring for both 1st shift industrial maintenance mechanics. The selected applicant must have at least three years of experience as a maintenance mechanic, industrial electrician, or technician. Otherwise, two years of formal technical school training and one year experience will be considered in place of three years of hands-on experience.

Benefits include:

Paid vacation after the 1st of the month and 30 days of service, along with paid holidays. Innocor contributes to the majority of the cost of Health and EAP. 401K has a potential match up to a max of 100% with a minimum contribution of 3%. Included is 100% company paid STD and Basic life and AD&D at 1x your base pay. Along with voluntary and supplemental insurances are offered in the areas of dental, vision, LTD Critical illness and accident insurance, spouse and child life insurance also available.

To apply email resume to: Misha Overland at moverland@innocorinc.com or stop in for an application: 2626 Murphy Rd * Portage