

LET'S TALK MS

Register for a live educational program happening in your area.

When you're diagnosed with relapsing multiple sclerosis (MS), it's easy to feel overwhelmed.

Let's Talk MS is a new educational program that may offer helpful information about living with MS. Join others in your area to hear from a healthcare professional and someone living with relapsing MS. Learn about common symptoms, a treatment option, and Biogen support services.
