

10

This long par 4 plays straightaway through the forest. This should be one of the hardest holes on the course.

Pins placed near the front of the green play easier than a hole near the back.

Most players will — need to hit driver on this hole, and the fairway tightens slightly for the longer hitter.

Good sight lines for spectators behind the tee and to the right of the green.