

A wide-angle photograph of a city street under construction. The street is lined with multi-story brick buildings. In the foreground, two construction workers wearing blue shirts and yellow hard hats are working on the pavement. The street is filled with orange traffic cones and yellow caution tape. The sky is clear and blue. The text 'Growing UP' is overlaid on the top half of the image, and 'Magic Valley's vision for the future' is overlaid on the bottom half.
