GENERAL RULES

1. The Columbia County Fairgrounds will be open Saturday from 8:00am to 3:30pm and Sunday from 2-5:30pm for drop-off of all arts & crafts exhibits. Flowers and prepared food will be accepted between 8-11 a.m. on the day they are to be judged. All items should be pre-registered at www.columbiacountyfair.com before judging starts. Exhibit items must remain in place until Sunday after fair week. Agriculture and Home Economics exhibits can be picked up between 1 & 3 p.m. Sunday afternoon.
2. All exhibits will be judged on their merits and judges may award 1st, 2nd, and 3rd or no premiums as their judgment may dictate. The decision of the judges in awarding the premiums shall be final. Where there is only one exhibitor in a class the single prize merited shall be paid.
3. All property of every character entered for competition or delay, or any other purpose, shall be subject to the control of the superintendents in charge, but in no case, shall the Columbia County Fair of Livestock Association or any of its officers or members be responsible for loss, damage, or injury of any character to such property while the same is on the grounds or any other place.
4. All exhibits and equipment remaining on the grounds 24 hours after the close of the fair will be at the Extension Office for 30 days and then disposed of.
5. ADMISSIONS
Children under 5: Free Non-Riders: $5 Armbands: See Schedule of Events on page 2 for daily pricing.
6. Exhibitor passes for commercial exhibitors, booth operators, and livestock exhibitors will be available prior to the fair on Saturday and Sunday until 5 p.m.
7. Junior Exhibitor..... $15.00
8. Senior Exhibitor..... $15.00
9. Inside parking sticker..... $10.00 (Must be attached to vehicle)
10. Ribbons will be awarded for placings 1st – 3rd.
11. Since a large part of the prize money is based on estimated income from gate receipts, premiums will be paid if money is available; otherwise, premiums will be paid on a percentage basis.
12. Superintendents of each department will be present to assist the judges.
13. The Fair Association reserves the right to reject inferior entries.
14. Payments of premiums can be obtained in the fair office starting Sunday 1 p.m. Premium winners must appear in person in order to receive their checks, Checks will not be given to exhibitor until your exhibit has been removed and area cleaned. CHECKS MUST BE CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS. IF THE CHECK IS NOT CASHED WITHIN 60 DAYS THE CHECK WILL BE VOIDED AND NO NEW PAYMENT WILL BE ISSUED. ALL FEES MUST BE PAID BEFORE PREMIUM CHECKS CAN BE PICKED UP.
15. All Best of Show must be a First Place Winner.
16. The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show will not assume or pay any obligation unless prior approval has been obtained from their finance committee.
17. Premium moneys will be forfeited if exhibit is removed before stated release time.
18. INTERPRETATION AND VIOLATION OF RULES – The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Association reserves to its management the final and absolute right to interpret the rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the Fair and Livestock Association, and the right to amend or add to these rules as its judgment may determine. An exhibitor who violates any of the rules will forfeit all privileges and premiums and be subject to such penalty as the management may order.
19. All arts and crafts winners in the Columbia County Fair are eligible to enter in the District Fair at Hope and the State Fair at Little Rock.
20. Any errors dealing with premium checks and ribbons must be reported to the fair manager within 5 days following the close of the county fair for payment. No Exceptions.
21. A representative from the fair board, county extension agent or 4H leader and FFA advisor must be present during a meeting on Wednesday night of fair week to determine a sale list. The sale list must be made available to the Executive Fair Board for approval before this list is distributed to the public.

LIVESTOCKGENERAL REQUIREMENTS

1. NEW FOR 2025 - All livestock and poultry must have a health inspection by Arkansas Livestock and Poultry Commission upon arrival before entering the barns. They should arrive between 4 and 8 pm on Sunday. Cattle returning from 4 States Fair may arrive on Monday between 1 and 4 pm. You must have proof of registration from 4 States Fair to check in at this time.
2. Livestock must be in place on the fairgrounds by their designated time outlined in #1. Anyone removing stock prior to release time will be subject to all penalties for violations as listed in/under Junior Agriculture.
3. The fair Association will appoint a competent veterinarian who will determine the health of the livestock and poultry. Any animal or bird showing symptoms of a communicable disease will be removed by owner from the grounds.
4. All livestock exhibitors must live in or attend school in Columbia County.
5. The fair board reserves the right to have a blood and urine laboratory analysis made for any animal at their fair.
6. Any animal receiving medication for any life-threatening disease or illness must be registered with the Livestock Superintendent or his designee at the time they are entering the fair. Any Exhibitor administering a drug to an animal which would render the carcass unfit for human consumption or any exhibitor of an animal producing an analysis indicating the presence of an unapproved drug that can result in quarantine or qualitative change in the characteristics of the animal will be required to return all premium money and could be banned from further competition. Their name and the lab analysis will be submitted to the USDA & FDA for further investigation and possible prosecution.
7. All market animals must be weighed at their designated time outlined in the calendar of events and recorded by the livestock superintendent.
8. Certificates of Veterinary Inspection and Entry Permits: "Certificates of veterinary inspection" refers to a legible record made on an official form issued from the state of origin by an accredited veterinarian, which shows that the animals listed thereon meet requirements of the state of destination. It must bear the identification of each animal and separate certificates must be made for each species of animal entered. Entry permits are required on all out-of-state swine, rodeo bulls unless thirty (30) days of entry, psittacines, passerines, ratites, all other avian species except poultry and turkeys, cervids, camelids, or exotic animals. Permits are also required on all cattle entering Arkansas from any state, unless that state has a reciprocal agreement with Arkansas. Permit numbers can be obtained from the state veterinarian's office (501) 907-2400 from 8:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m. Monday – Friday. A certificate of veterinary inspection must accompany all out-of-state animals; and
 - a. Must be available on request by animal health officials.
 - b. Individually identify all animals, showing positive identification of each animal by tattoo, ear tag, registration number or ear notch. Steers should be identified by description.
 - c. Show required test, vaccinations, and entry permit number, if applicable.
 - d. Show name and address of owner or exhibitor – this shall be the same name as under which animals are exhibited.
9. Any animal or poultry showing any evidence of infectious or contagious disease, or of external parasitism, and animals with active ringworm lesions (with the resulting loss of hair), multiple warts easily visible without close examination, or atrophic rhinitis will not be permitted to exhibit.
10. All animals entering the grounds, including those shown in pet zoos, children's barnyard animals, Poultry & Rabbit Barn, must meet requirements of their particular species.
11. All animals originating out of areas quarantined because of other diseases (vesicular stomatitis, scabies, etc.) shall not be permitted to enter the state.
12. Poultry and rabbits are dismissed immediately after their awards ceremony. All other livestock is released at 10 pm on Friday.

GENERAL RULES

1. All livestock entries for the Columbia County Fair will be due online at www.columbiacountyfair.com by midnight, August 31.
2. No incomplete entries will be accepted. If incomplete entries are submitted, they will be considered null and void. This includes all information asked for on the entry form including Breed Registry numbers, 840 Tag numbers, and Scrapie ID Tag numbers. This is the same as NO entry submitted and no consideration will be allowed past the entry deadline.
3. The Columbia County Fair & Livestock Show Association's Fair Management reserves the right to enforce penalties for violations of the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show. Penalties include any or all of the following:
 - a. Expulsion from entry at any future Columbia County Fair & Livestock Shows.
 - b. Suspension from entry for a period of years.
 - c. Surrender of all premiums, awards, and placings
 - d. Reimbursement of all associated costs incurred by the Columbia County Fair & Livestock Show, including attorney fees.
 - e. Referral to law enforcement for violations.
 - f. Other penalties as determined by the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show.
4. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to read and understand all the requirements of the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show, no exceptions! Violations of these rules are not taken lightly by state or federal officials or by the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show. Be aware that the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show's Fair Management reserves the right, that penalties may also be assessed against family members of the violating exhibitor.
5. Exhibitors, be sure that all family members and others assisting with the care of your animals are aware of the rules. Remember you are responsible for what happens to the animal and not someone else! The responsibility rests on your shoulders! Maintaining integrity and following the rules of fair play is the primary reason for the policies and procedures. We cannot lose sight of the fact that we have a moral and ethical responsibility to our animals, fellow exhibitors, and our community. Those who disrespect these responsibilities can and will suffer the consequences.
6. This department is open to members of good standing of 4-H clubs and FFA Chapters in Columbia County. Exhibitors may show no later than the fall after graduating high school. Exhibitors must be six years old by the first day of the fair. Membership should be confirmed prior to each annual fair by someone from the fair board, County Extension Office, 4H leaders and FFA Advisors. Membership must be in good standing by September 1 of each year. 1st time 4H and FFA members are exempt from requirements established with their organization regarding eligibility.

7. Exhibitors are personally responsible for the general custody, care and feeding of their animals. Family members, Columbia County 4-H leaders, Columbia County FFA Advisors, and fellow exhibitors that are in good standing with the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show may assist with these tasks. Anyone found in violation of this rule may be subject to immediate disqualification without recourse as deemed appropriate by the Livestock Superintendent, and Fair President.
8. The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show reserves the right to make spot checks of animals and exhibitors at any time to inspect and verify ownership and possession of any livestock entered in the Columbia County Fair and Livestock Show. The Livestock Superintendent and/or his designee will conduct spot checks. There will be at least a 2 hour notice of inspection before arrival.

September 15, 2025, at 8PM

Miss Fair Queen Contestants must be 18-23 years of age and either a graduating high school senior, enrolled in post-secondary education, or non-pursuant of education by October 1st.

Jr. Fair Queen Contestants must be 14-17 years of age by October 1st, regardless of what grade you are in. If you are 17 and a senior and want to compete in the senior division for a chance to win scholarships, you may do so. No one 18 and up can be in the Jr. Division

Pre-Teen Queen Contestants must be 12-13 years of age by October 1st, regardless of what grade you are in.

A contestant must be a resident of Columbia County and must have been born a female. She cannot be, become, or at any time have been married, engaged, had a marriage annulled, pregnant, or have had a child. Contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending. Past Arkansas State Fair Royalty are ineligible to compete again.

College Students: To be eligible to compete in the county or district fair where you are currently attending college, you must have completed one full semester, be a full-time student, and currently be carrying 12 credit hours.

Competition for Jr. & Miss Fair Queen Divisions

Each contestant will compete in Private Interview, Evening Gown, and On-Stage Question.

- ❖ Private Interview – Contestant should dress as if she is interviewing for a job. Appropriate dress for the interview may be a suit, dress, or jumpsuit.
- ❖ Evening Gown – Contestants should choose an evening gown of choice. The choice of gown should be age appropriate.

Interviews – The interview will account for 50 percent of the contestant's total score. All interviews will be five minutes long and will be timed and monitored. The Judges and Contestants are not allowed to shake hands or have any physical contact. This phase of competition will be judged on eye contact, posture, personality, style, ability to converse, vocabulary, and grammar.

Evening Gown – The Evening Gown Competition will account for 40 percent of the contestant's total score. Judging will be based on overall first impression, beauty, stage presence, personality, charm, walk, appropriateness of evening gown and overall appearance.

On-stage Question – The On-stage Question will account for 10 percent of a contestant's total score. This phase of competition will be judged on her ability to answer confidently, as well as her tone of voice and how she presents herself, eye contact, grammar and can she answer questions spontaneously.

Fair Queen Duties – The winner will also compete at the Arkansas State Fair Pageant and represent Columbia County for the Arkansas State Fair Queen Jr. & Miss Titles. During the week of the Columbia County Fair, the winners will be asked to assist the Columbia County Fair Board, at the Fair, where needed (presenting awards, posing for photos, helping, etc.). We encourage the Fair Queen to represent Columbia County during her reign when possible. The reigning Columbia County Fair Queen must always conduct herself properly. Inappropriate behavior bringing unfavorable publicity to herself and/or the Columbia County Fair may result in the Columbia County Fair Queen relinquishing her title and the forfeiture and the returning of all prizes and monetary awards.

Any display of bad sportsmanship and/or unbecoming conduct, any interference and/or disturbance, foul language, or any other behavioral problem created by a contestant, parent, relative or supporter of a contestant could result in the disqualification of the contestant not only from this year's pageant but all future contests.

Mandatory Rehearsal will be held on Sunday September 14, 2025, at 6pm.

The Columbia County Fair Talent & Pageant Directors and or the Columbia County Fair Board reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with, or incident to the contest, and the right to amend or add to these rules as their judgement may determine. Any contestant who fails to abide by any of the above rules can be disqualified from the competition by the Columbia County Fair Talent & Pageant Directors or the Columbia County Fair Board.

The Columbia County Fair is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged property. Please treat the facility with the upmost respect and clean-up after yourself when the event is over.

The Columbia County Talent and Pageant Directors have chosen fair and impartial judges. Contestant and/or parents are not to approach the judges at any time. Their decision will be final.

Rules and Regulations

1. Contestants must be legal residents of Arkansas and Columbia County and must compete as age on the day of the pageant.
2. Contestants will be numbered according to the date entry forms are received. First entry in, will be the last contestant out. Contestants will receive their numbers at pageant rehearsal, and no sooner.
3. There will be pageant rehearsal on SATURDAY of fair week. All age groups will practice at 9am at the pavilion.
4. Contestants are required to be on time for rehearsal and check-in on the night of the pageant. We want to start on time for all age groups to allow a smooth and time efficient pageant. If you are not checked by 6:50pm you will be counted absent and will be disqualified. It's important that everything runs as smoothly and quickly as possible.
5. Attire for pageant: Can be pageant dress, flower girl style dress, formal-prom dress, or Sunday best. In no way does the cost of the contestant's dress have a bearing on the outcome of the pageant.
6. Makeup is allowed for the girls but should be kept age appropriate and used with discretion.
7. False enhancements are allowed but not recommended. (False Hair, eyelashes, teeth, etc.)
8. Side awards: Prettiest Eyes, Prettiest Hair, Prettiest Smile, Best Fashion, and Most Beautiful. These awards are judged during the first lineup of contestants on stage. They are strictly extra awards that you may enter if you choose, however they have no bearing on the outcome of the pageant results. You also must pay to enter them to be eligible to win them.
9. Photogenic (side award): Pictures may be any size, color or black/white, glitz or natural. Please bring all photos to the pageant rehearsal. DO NOT MAIL PHOTOGENIC PHOTO!! Only one photo will be accepted per contestant. Please do not put photo in a frame. Plastic, protective sleeves are acceptable. Label photo with child's name and age on the back. All photos will be returned to you after the pageant and must be picked up at that time. The Columbia County Fair Association is not responsible for photos that are left after the event.
10. We will crown a queen, 1st Runner Up, 2nd Runner Up, 3rd Runner Up in each age division.
11. Any display of poor sportsmanship and/or unbecoming conduct, any interference or disturbance, foul language, or any other behavioral problem created by a contestant, parent, or any other involved party will result in disqualification from not only this year's pageant, but from all future contests.
12. The Columbia County Fair and Livestock Association, or pageant director is not responsible for any lost, stolen, or damaged property. Please treat the facility with respect and clean up after yourself when the event is over.
13. Fair and impartial judges are chosen by the Little Miss Columbia County Fair Queen Pageant Director. Contestants and/or parents are not allowed to approach the judges at any time. Their decision will be final. All Contestants will be judged on Facial Beauty, Stage Presentation, Attitude/Personality, and Overall Appearance. Score sheets will NOT be available after the pageant and will not be available for viewing.
14. The dressing area for contestants will be behind stage. Each contestant can only be accompanied by ONE assistant backstage. No men will be allowed in the dressing area at any time.
15. All newly crowned queens and their court will need to stay after the pageant for pictures for the newspaper/social media.
16. No parking inside the gate will be allowed. Parking passes for parking behind the livestock area can be purchased in the fair office.
17. Contestant, and one chaperone per contestant will receive a pass for free admission at the gate. (NOT A CAR PASS) The pass will get you in the entry gate at the front of the fairgrounds.
18. We encourage, but do not require, each contestant to participate in the Columbia County Fair Parade on Monday. More information will be given at rehearsal.
19. Columbia County Fair Queen Pageants are required to follow the rules and guidelines set forth by the Arkansas State Fair.
20. The winner of the Little Miss (4-5 years) age division will be required to go to Hope and compete in the Southwest District Fair Queen Pageant and fair parade.

- Kids Division contestants must be 5-9 years old by October 1, 2025
- Youth Division contestants must be 10-13 years old by October 1, 2025

Winners of the Kids & Youth Divisions do not require preliminary wins to advance to the Arkansas State Fair Talent Show. The Arkansas State Fair Youth Divisions are open competitions.

- Junior Division contestants must be 14-17 years old by October 1, 2025
- Senior Division contestants must be 18-23 years of age by October 1, 2025
- Adult Division consist of contestants aged 24 and older by October 1, 2025

The top three scorers in each division will advance to the Arkansas State Fair Talent Show.

If you have a group comprised of different ages, the act must enter in the division applicable to the average age of the entire group.

Jr/Sr/Adult contestants must not have ever been convicted of any crime or have any criminal charges pending. Jr/Sr contestants must not have ever been married, divorced, or have had children.

Categories to compete in:

Vocal Solo: Shall consist only of a vocal performance by one vocalist. The self-accompaniment vocalist will be judged on vocals only.

Vocal Group: Shall consist of 2 and not more than 10 vocalists. No other talent may be performed. There will only be up to 3 microphones available.

Dance Solo: Shall consist of one dancer. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. All types of dancing will be judged in this category – tap, jazz, ballet, folk, contemporary, ethnic, fad, etc. gymnastics, tumbling, acrobatics, or any other form of gymnastics is not allowed due to stage restrictions and liability.

Dance Group: Shall consist of two and not more than 12 dancers. No other talent may be displayed in conjunction with the dance performance. The same rule listed under dance solo apply.

Variety: Shall consist of a performance of one and no more than 10 people. Variety is intended to provide a proper showcase of those acts in which multiple talents are displayed no act may include a drum set, swords, open flames, or any form of flammable liquid.

Instrumental Solo: Shall consist of an instrumental performance without vocal utterance by one performer. Tape accompaniment may be used. Contestants are highly encouraged to memorize their performance rather than using sheet music while performing. We will not furnish a music stand or keyboard.

Time Limits: Each act should not be more than 3 minutes long no exceptions.

Musical accompaniment: Music will only be accepted on a USB drive and must be clearly labeled with contestant's name. There should only be the act you are performing on this USB drive. No phones, iPod or iPad will be used.

No fading or stopping of the music will be allowed if you are digitally playing your music. We do not provide instruments please bring anything you may need.

Props are highly discouraged due to time constraints. If you use/need one, we highly suggest it must be used as a functional part of your act.

Performances are judged on:

- Stage presence/professionalism (10%) technical ability (10%)
- appearance/wardrobe (10%), and entertainment value (20%)

Any inappropriate lyric or moves in the performance will result in immediate disqualification. The Columbia County Fair staff has the right to interrupt a performance if it is not deemed suitable for the Columbia County Fair talent competition.

Rehearsals will be held on Sunday September 15th 6pm. Rehearsal isn't mandatory; however, it is strongly encouraged for you to attend as this is when we will have any last-minute information for you and can answer any questions you may have.

Check in: All ages 14 and over can begin checking in at 6:30pm but no later than 6:45. Check in will be in the dressing room behind the stage. Please come dressed and ready to perform.

Awards: Awards will be given per division.

Talent winners who advance to the Arkansas State Fair can find the information and entry forms for the Arkansas State Fair competition at www.Arkansasstatefair.com. You will have two weeks after county competition to get your entry in.

The Columbia County Fair Talent Directors and or Columbia County Fair Management reserve the final and absolute right to interpret these rules and arbitrarily settle and determine all matters, questions, and differences in regard thereto or otherwise arising out of or connected with or incident to the competition and the right to amend or add to these rules as their judgment may determine. Any contestant who fails to abide by any of the above rules or any rules/statement given orally may be disqualified from the competition by the Columbia County Fair Talent Directors and or Columbia County Fair Management or Fair Board. Columbia County Fair Association is not responsible for lost stolen or damaged items or items left in the dressing room or at the fair pavilion.
