

Love County Library Book Club to feature “Too Old for This” by Samantha Downing

Join others at the Love County Library for their book club at 6 p.m. Thursday, November 5.

Conversation and fellowship will be centered on popular book titles for adults to discuss. November’s book, “Too Old for This” by Samantha Downing, will be discussed.

Lottie Jones thought she had left her past crimes behind. Years ago, she changed her name and hid herself in a small town.

Her most exciting nights are playing bingo at the church and chatting with her friends.

When reporter Plum Dixon comes to her door asking about Lottie’s past and her possible connection to several unsolved crimes, Lottie knows she can’t let that happen.

Getting away from murder is hard enough when you’re young. Now, as Lottie hears another knock at the door, she realizes this new danger could finally reveal her secrets and put her life at risk.

“We are excited to feature this book at our November book club,” said Branch Manager Neshia Crane.

“Our Book Club members will enjoy discussing ‘Too Old for This’ and the fellowship of meeting with each other.”

For more information or to pick up your book copy, contact Love County Library at (580) 276-3783 or visit 500 South Highway 77 in Marietta.

Cardio drumming classes at LCL

Cardio drumming is back at Love County Library.

Seniors are invited to join the fun every Monday and Wednesday at 2 p.m. from November 2-18.

Led by experienced YMCA Fitness Instructor Susan Cowbeck, these classes offer a high-energy, accessible fitness opportunity for older adults in the community. Call now to reserve your spot.

Cardio drumming is a dynamic group fitness workout that combines rhythmic drumming with aerobic exercise.

By elevating the heart rate, the class provides a strong cardiovascular workout, burns calories, tones muscles, and helps build upper-body strength.

The sessions are low-impact, making them safe for all ages, fitness levels, and individuals with minor injuries.

Participants can also modify movements for seated or standing positions, ensuring the class is adaptable and inclusive.

In addition to physical benefits, cardio drumming supports mental and cognitive health by improving hand-eye coordination, motor skills, focus, and memory. This energetic drumming class also serves as a fun and expressive way to relieve stress.

“Cardio drumming is a fun exercise that activates many muscles through drumming, and it can be done while sitting or standing,” said Library Branch Manager Neshia Crane.

“This exercise is an excellent way to elevate your heart rate and keep yourself active.”

Love County Library is offering this program as part of a health literacy grant from the Oklahoma Department of Libraries. The program is funded in part by the Institute of Museum and Library Services.

For more information or to make reservations, you can contact the Love County Library at (580) 276-3783 or visit the library at 500 South Highway 77 in Marietta.
