

International student athletes face hurdles when it comes to NIL

According to the NCAA, the average total earning for an athlete is $20,914. International athletes make up over 12% of Division I participants. These athletes hold F-1 visas, which restrict what visa holders can make, meaning international student athletes are unable to earn money off NIL.

