Lloyd 'Bill' Nash Wright

Nash

Wright age 95, born June 13, 1927 in Jordan, MT and passed away on Feb 28, 2023. Lloyd was the second oldest son of James Cooper Wright and Mabel (Looke) Wright. Lloyd's oldest bother John (Tuck) and younger brother James are both deceased. Lloyd grew up at Steve's Fork and on his folks homestead 22 miles northwest of Brusett, MT and afterwards spent a few years living at Immigrant Gulch, MT near Chico Hot Springs with his uncle

(Bill)

Lloyd

Frank Looke who had and worked in a gold and drafted into the Army and served as a mechanic in the North Korean War where he ended up in the hospital and then

He then worked on the married

several ranches, worked in construction building

Glasgow Air Force Base.

LaDonna Delong in 1953, until her death in 2011 at

Lloyd and LaDonna

moved to Troy, Montana in 1956 and started in the logging business. In 1962 the family moved to Canyon Creek, MT the age of 78 years old.

honorably discharged.

bridges and on

Lloyd

At the age of 22 he was silver mine.

he continued to log until 1976 when they decided to move back to the homestead near Brusett, MT. He started farming and had a small sawmill operation. In his later years he moved to a small acreage south of Jordan, MT where he spent his also spending time with family working or fishing. Lloyd remarried in 2015 to Susan Stockton at the age of 88.

Lloyd was proud of his remaining time. Lloyd loved to fly airplanes and good health and at the age of 96 he decided to have a knee replacement. After his surgery he had complications and died shortly afterwards. He is survived in death by his wife Susan, his six children Rosanne, Quinn, Kayleen, Kevin, Kim, Krista and numerous grandchildren and great grandchildren. His wish was to be cremated and be buried in the Spring Creek continuing to log. In 1964 Cemetery which is they pack up and moved located on the original to Wise River, Mt where homestead.