

IN LOVING MEMORY OF ALYCE FAYE TIPTON

October 31, 1954 - May 22, 2026

With heavy hearts but endless love, we celebrate the beautiful life of Alyce Faye Tipton, who passed away on Friday, May 22, 2026 in Chapel Hill, NC, surrounded by her family. She was born on October 31, 1954 in Denton, NC, a woman who lived life to the fullest and loved with all her heart.

Alyce was so full of life, with a spirit that could light up any room. She was incredibly outgoing, never met a stranger, and had a smile that was contagious. Her heart was huge, and her love for her family was unconditional and unwavering.

Alyce started beauty school at a young age and built a lifelong career as a cosmetologist. Through hard work and a gift for making people feel beautiful, she established her own salon, Looks Unlimited. Later, after her first battle with breast cancer, she founded her mobile salon, Always Love Yourself, to reach out to others affected by cancer who were unable to travel.

Her compassion extended far beyond the salon chair. Through her work, advocacy, and outreach to fellow cancer patients, Alyce used her gifts to help others feel beautiful, confident, and loved. She supported Locks of Love fundraisers and was a proud mentor with the Look Good Feel Better Program, uplifting and encouraging those walking through their own battles.

Alyce was a woman of many passions. She attended Farmer Baptist Church and was an active member of the Farmer Civitan Club and the Hometown Artisans Guild. She loved the outdoors and was an avid huntress who took down deer, bear, and turkey.

She was a gardener who found joy in flowers and took pride in beautifying the world around her. She enjoyed arts and crafting, had a creative soul, and was a world traveler, having visited places such as Honduras and Africa, always embracing new experiences and making memories along the way.

Most importantly, she was a wife, daughter, sister, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.
