

HARRIS "HARRY" LEE REYNOLDS

Harris "Harry" Lee Reynolds of Asheboro, age 75, passed away peacefully at Hospice of Randolph on May 21, 2026. He was a 1969 graduate of West Montgomery High School, a 6-year veteran of the U.S. Army and a 35-year employee of Klaussner. Harry will always be remembered for his loving and generous heart and great sense of humor.

He loved playing the guitar and singing country and gospel music, especially with his gospel trio and brother. Harry loved the outdoors - walking, hunting, fishing, or sitting on the porch watching the birds.

Harry was preceded in death by his parents, James Horace Reynolds Sr. and Elaine Pritchard Reynolds; and his brother-in-law, J. Michael Allen.

He is survived by his sister, Madeline Reynolds Allen of Ramseur; brother, James

Horace "Butch" Reynolds Jr. of Troy; nephew, Dr. Todd Allen and wife Sue of Greeley,

Colorado; niece, Britt Allen of Liberty; aunt, Nancy Hulin Tuttle of King; also loving and faithful friends, Mark Britt and Debby V. Burke of Asheboro.

Visitation and memorial services will be held Saturday, May 30, at Fellowship Baptist Church, 528 Old Liberty Road in Asheboro.

Visitation will be from 2 to 3 p.m., with a memorial service to follow at 3 p.m. Pastors Mark Keck and Allen Murray will preside. A private graveside service will be held at a later date at Love Joy Methodist Church in Troy.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to Hospice of Randolph County, 416 Vision

Drive, Asheboro, NC 27203 or to Love Joy Methodist Church Cemetery Fund, 1187

Substation Rd. Troy, NC 27371. Midstate Cremation and Funeral Service is assisting the family.
