A Couch Full of Memories Honors PEANUTS!

Since their 1950 comic strip debut, the PEANUTS gang has become a beloved cultural icon, delighting fans across generations. Readers quickly came to know and love a whole cast of indelible young characters and, even after 75 years, for fans everywhere, happiness is PEANUTS!

To honor this 75th anniversary milestone, the officially licensed "Happiness Is 75 Years of PEANUTS" sculpture brings the entire gang together in a heartwarming scene. Gathered on a cozy couch facing a TV displaying a special anniversary message, the characters celebrate decades of cherished moments together. Schroeder plays his piano while Lucy leans in, captivated. Charlie Brown, Snoopy, and Woodstock share quiet camaraderie, while Linus, Sally, and Peppermint Patty showcase their timeless charm.

Corvette® & Coke. Celebrate 250 Years of America!

Shown smaller than approximate size of 10 1/4" long.

Two Great American Classics Unite

When it comes to iconic American symbols, few rival the Chevrolet Corvette® and Coca-Cola, two brands emblematic of American culture and famous symbols of optimism, freedom, and the American dream. Coca-Cola has long been a refreshing companion to moments of celebration, while the Corvette®, with its sleek, powerful design, has long been a dream car for millions.

A star-spangled tribute in 1:18 scale

Now, they come together in the "Red, White, and Coke: 1976 Corvette® Tribute," a 1:18-scale sculpted Stingray that's bold, nostalgic, and unmistakably patriotic! From its classic body lines to its chrome vacuum plating and nostalgic detailing, this car is a true celebration of 1970s Americana. Each curve of the Corvette® echoes the roar of the open road, while vintage Coke branding stirs up timeless memories.
