

GRADUATION

Class of 2021

School update: A commencement speech

"Commit your works to the Lord..."
(Proverbs 16:3)

Congratulations, graduates! The message is this: Commit your works to the Lord. As you move forward, seek God's will. Put your trust in Jesus Christ with whatever individual paths you embark on, and He will direct your thoughts. Your thoughts and plans will be established. Trust Him, respond to His will, answer to His guidance, and your plans will succeed and be anchored. "Commit your works to the Lord, and your thoughts will be established" (Proverbs 16:3). In the book of Proverbs, King Solomon speaks on wisdom and its blessings — wisdom for living. It is wise and successful planning to entrust our works to Trustingly hand over whatever you do to the Lord. Commit your works to the Lord. Depend on Him. Dedicate everything to the Lord.

Della Marie Newkirk

the Lord. Put God first (Matthew 6:33). Ask yourself, "Does God get the glory from my plans, thoughts and actions? Are my plans God-inspired?" What are your deeds? Entrust those efforts to the Lord. Graduates, congratulations on such an amazing accomplishment. In spite of it all, you hung in there, so rejoice. And congrats to the cheerleading teams of families and supporters. Rejoice, because you didn't quit. In the face of oppositions, you persevered, so celebrate. There have been many opportunities and seemingly justifiable reasons to give up, but you didn't. You overcame challenges, jumped over hurdles and overcame barriers, so the victory is sweet. You have gained experience fighting battles, trusting God every step of the way. Now, stay focused. Remain diligent and persistent as you turn the page. So, as you move on to the next chapter, don't forget the Lord in your plans. Trustingly hand over whatever you do to the Lord. Commit your works to the Lord. Depend on Him. Dedicate everything to the Lord. Seek His will and direction. Submit and entrust your works and actions unto the Lord. Almighty God, guide and establish thought patterns. Achieve! In Christ, win! Confidently commit your actions unto the Lord and proceed. May your thoughts and purposes be built on a firm foundation. Choose to dedicate your concerns to God, standing on the promises of God. Commit your works to the Lord, and He will establish your thoughts and purpose. Stay faithful to Him. Good old-fashioned advice: Stay on fire for God. As stated, get your learning, but don't lose your burning. Prayer: O Lord, we praise You. Throughout years of studying, thanks for standing with us and giving us strength (2 Timothy 4:17) and for making provisions. Establish our thoughts, as we commit our works unto You. Defending the faith as shining ambassadors for Jesus Christ, we heed to the call for leadership that is informed by Christian principles in local communities and abroad. To God be the glory. Thy will be done. In the name of Jesus, Amen. Della Marie Woods Newkirk is an educator and native of Lillington. She can be reached at newkirkdella@gmail.com.
