COMMISSIONER AMBROSE EXPOSES "SHAM" ETHICS COMPLAINT BY LIBERAL OPPONENTS; REFUSES TO BACK DOWN ON TAX CUTS FOR MONROE COUNTY

FORSYTH, GA — February 4, 2026 — Monroe County District 3 Commissioner John Ambrose is taking the fight directly to the Radical Left today by proactively exposing a secret political "Witch Hunt" being orchestrated within the County Commission.

Ambrose has learned that a baseless and disgusting ethics complaint is being cooked up behind closed doors led by liberal Democrat Commissioner Lemarcus Davis and his allies. This move comes immediately after Commissioner Ambrose announced his re-election campaign on a platform of returning new tax revenues directly to the pockets of Monroe County taxpayers.

"This is nothing more than a desperate, pathetic attempt at Election Interference," said Commissioner Ambrose. "As soon as I told the big spenders on this Commission that I was going to fight for a tax cut, they went into a total panic. They want to keep your money for their own pet projects and personal agendas. When they realized, I wasn't going to budge, they hatched a nasty plan to try and run me out of office by making up false, total lie allegations."

According to Ambrose, these liberal opponents even issued an ultimatum: step aside and do not run for re-election, or they would move forward with false allegations to embarrass him and his family.

"I will not be bullied by Lemarcus Davis or anyone else," Ambrose continued. "They are trying to weaponize our institutions to label me a racist, which is a flat out lie that anyone who knows my heart or my record knows is pure fiction. This is the same Radical Left playbook we see across the entire country. When a strong Conservative stands up for regular folks, they try to intimidate us. It will not work."

Commissioner Ambrose remains 100% committed to his re-election campaign and his promise to deliver results for the people of Monroe County. He is calling on all citizens to see through this political smoke screen and stand with him for transparency and lower taxes.

"I have the guts and the grit to see this through," Ambrose said. "I will not back down, I will not be bullied, and I will not go quietly. We are going to expose this corruption, and WE ARE GOING TO WIN RE-ELECTION!"
