SANTA CLAUS WEARS NO. 11

"YES, VIRGINIA, THERE IS A SANTA CLAUS" — HE PLAYS FOR THE MINNESOTA VIKINGS WHO ARE ABOUT TO HAVE A VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS.

VA News

Care in Veterans Administration hospitals may be extended to veterans of all wars and to peacetime veterans under certain conditions, according to Dr. Arthur J. Klippen, director of the Minneapolis VA Hospital.

Priority on admission to hospitals goes first to veterans who require treatment for service-connected conditions, Dr. Klippen said. Second priority is for those who have service-connected disabilities but require treatment for conditions that are not service connected.

A veteran without a service-connected disability may be admitted provided he served in any war, or after June 27, 1950, or received the Medal of Honor during peacetime service.

Dr. Klippen pointed out that admission of such patients depends on these considerations: (1) hospitalization must be necessary, (2) the patient must state in writing that he is unable to defray the cost of the necessary hospitalization elsewhere, and (3) an appropriate hospital bed must be available.

Outpatient care for nonservice-connected conditions is not permitted by law, he said, but certain pre-hospital and post-hospital medical services can be performed for patients who are scheduled for admission to a VA hospital or those who require follow-up care after hospitalization. The intent of this law is to shorten periods of actual hospitalization while providing the same medical care.

Patients who have received maximum hospital benefit yet require nursing care may be furnished this care in either a VA facility or a private nursing home, according to the director.

Veterans disabled by age or disease who do not need hospitalization or skilled nursing care may be admitted to VA domiciliaries on an ambulatory, self-care basis under approximately the same rules as for hospitalization, he said.

Edyth Bush Classic Comedy For December

"You Can't Take It With You," a comedy classic by Moss Hart and George Kaufman will open 8:30 p.m., tonight at the Edyth Bush Theatre of Hamline University, 690 S. Cleveland.

The play continues on a Friday, Saturday and Sunday schedule through Dec. 28. Sunday performances will be at 7:30 p.m.

The meeting of the two families in the Sycamore household leads to an evening of merriment that poses the proposition that if the Sycamores are mad, the rest of the world is madder.

Donald Kane and Helen Greenblat play Penelope and Paul Sycamore the heads of the zany household while Paul Manley is Martin Vanderhof the family patriarch. Fred Keller and Barbara Holmes play the young lovers Tony Kirby and Alice Sycamore.

Directing the play is Joseph Sax, the manager, permanent director of the Bush.

Area Girl Scouts Honored

Two Highland area residents were honored at the sixth annual meeting of the Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley, on November 18th. More than 200 people were on hand at the Women's City Club to applaud the presentation of a Thanks Badge to Mrs. Herbert Mahle, 1101 Davern, and a Certificate of Appreciation to Mrs. M. J. Steyaert, 2005 Norfolk Avenue. The Thanks Badge is the highest award in adult Girl Scouting, and is given only with much thought and consideration. The candidate must have performed exceptional service for Girl Scouting, and must be representative of the highest ideals of Scouting. According to Council President Mrs. William Cutts, Evelyn Mahle exemplifies the Girl Scout Promise and Laws. She has given service to Scouting in all area of adult leadership: as a camp counselor, professional worker, troop leader, troop committee member, troop consultant, day camp counselor, member of the board of directors, trainer, and member of the camp and personnel committees. Said Mrs. Cutts: "Evelyn has added an extra 'beyond the call of duty' touch to every job she has done."

In addition to her Girl Scout work, Mrs. Mahle has been active in many other church and community groups.

A Certificate of Appreciation is given to an individual or a group for outstanding or distinguished service to Girl Scouting. Dorothy Steyaert has made many contributions to Scouting in the six years she has been a member of the Girl Scout Council of St. Croix Valley. As a troop committee chairman, troop organizer, Brownie consultant, local Marian Award chairman, troop leader, and nursing home service project worker, she has helped make Girl Scouting in her neighborhood more successful. Said Mrs. Hugh Gwin in presenting the Certificate to Mrs. Steyaert, "Whenever you ask Dorothy to help, she never says 'no' . . . she just says, 'how.' You can always rely on her to carry her assignment through."

During the business meeting that preceded the presentation of awards the Girl Scout delegates elected a slate of officers, board members, and nominating committee members to serve the next three years. Among those elected were Mrs. William Cutts, 373 Woodlawn, president; and Mr. Marshall Blomquist, 2193 Upper St. Dennis Road, treasurer.

Mondale To Lecture At St. Leo's Church

The Urban Affairs Commission of the St. Paul and Minneapolis Archdiocese, sponsor of the John Ireland Lecture Forum, has announced that the second lecture in the series will be held at St. Leo's Catholic Church, 2055 Bohland Avenue, St. Paul, Sunday, December 7, instead of the St. Thomas College Armory.

The Forum, named after the first Archbishop of St. Paul, consists of a series of five lectures, each based on one of five recent social involvement documents of the Catholic Church, presented by dynamic Catholic and Protestant leaders. The purpose of the Forum is to show how these documents, when understood, can lead to the development of programs able to attack the problem barriers to social harmony. The series is open to the public.

It is a religion based on the words and works of Christ Jesus. It has helped many like you to prove in a measure the meaning of Christ Jesus' promise:

"He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also." It shows the scientific basis of Christianity and how to avail yourself of the laws of God in everyday life.

LOOK YOUR AGE—YOUR OWN LOVELY AGE

Most women find it almost impossible to be content with the chronological spot in which they find themselves. They seem to want to have it both ways all the time. My younger patrons want to look a little older and my older patrons want me to help them cut off a few years. In my opinion each one has a special beauty to offer at any appointed time and they destroy what they have when they attempt to crossover. A teenager makes a very unsuccessful femme fatale, and a slightly-under-sixty matron can't possibly carry off skirts 8" above the knee no matter how disciplined her figure.

New 'U' Press Book Dispels Harding Myths

Was the late Warren G. Harding really a bumbling nonentity? Or was his failure as a person, rather than as a president?

Myths surrounding the controversial Republican who served as president in the 1920's are analyzed and many of them dispelled in a new book published by the University of Minnesota Press.

"The Harding Era: Warren G. Harding and His Administration" by Robert K. Murray is a reappraisal of the Harding nomination, election and administration in light of newly available materials, including the Harding Papers.

The book reveals that the Harding administration, despite inherent domestic and international chaos, was surprisingly successful in solving its immediate problems and engineered an efficient transition from the postwar turmoil to a time of prosperity.

Murray says Harding was a catalytic influence in these accomplishments and that his failure was not in administration, but in himself and his friends.

The author is chairman of the history department at Pennsylvania State University. He wrote "Red Scare: A Study in National Hysteria, 1919-1920," also published by the University of Minnesota Press.

Jorrin Photographs Offer Variety at Institute Exhibition

Currently exhibited at The Minneapolis Institute of Arts are the sensitive photographs of Mario Jorrin, which Curator Carroll T. Hartwell was able to bring back from a recent visit to New York.

With the deep natural sympathy of someone who grew up in the streets of New York, very much in touch with every-day occurrences, Jorrin, of Puerto Rican descent, evidences the visionary's ability to stand back and frame a scene that projects a meaning limited only by the imagination of the viewer.

His broad range of interests is not trapped by a particular attitude, nor limited by pre-occupation with photographic mechanics. He responds visually with his camera, as a poet would with words, or an artist with a brush.

There is the graceful beauty of the white seagull floating on a breeze in a dark sky; the pensive poignancy of the photographer's little daughter and son; the varying moods of a street confrontation; and the terrifying realism of boys playing "war."

With the background of a soldier, musician, teacher, and photographer, Jorrin has said he does not want his photographs to be just representations . . . that he wants them to express feelings. With that aim in view he has worked mostly as an independent photographer since 1961 when he was awarded a grant by the John Hay Whitney Foundation.

The Jorrin exhibition is free to the public and will be at the Art Institute through Dec. 21.

MacPhail's 'Musical Trolley' to be Held Downtown and Suburb

Even if you're only half its size, you may be able to make a musical instrument make its sound for you.

Pre-schoolers in a music class created particularly for them hold instruments and examine their parts, find out "What would happen if I did this?" and try to make sounds come out.

At MacPhail Center for the Performing Arts, a part of the University of Minnesota General Extension Division, the Musical Trolley class provides an early introduction to the arts—complete in itself or a basis for future training.

Essentially, the class is "a chance to try different things," says instructor Jo Mastry. Music leads to dancing, drama and visual art through common elements of rhythm, movement, sound and texture.

Musical Trolley classes will meet in St. Louis Park—at Westwood Lutheran Church, 9001 S. Cedar Lake rd.—for the first time beginning Dec. 8. A Monday-morning class and a Monday-afternoon class will meet there.

The week of Dec. 1, several Trolley classes will begin at MacPhail Center, 1128 LaSalle ave. in downtown Minneapolis.

All the classes meet once a week for 12 weeks, with a two-week break for Christmas. Registration information for either location is available from MacPhail Center.

Socialist Youth to Hold National Convention

The Twin Cities chapter of the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) will host the organization's ninth annual national convention, to be held Dec. 27-30 at the University of Minnesota.

"We expect activists from all over the country—in the anti-war movement, black community, colleges, high schools, trade unions and the armed forces—to attend the convention," Bill Scheer, YSA Twin Cities organizer, said today. "We will assess this year's work and make plans for 1970."

Scheer, who describes the group as the socialist wing of the radical youth movement, said that 800 people attended last year's convention at the University of Chicago and that since then the number of members has increased substantially.

Discussions and panels will include topics on international youth radicalization, the movement to end the war in Vietnam, black and third-world movements and women's rights movements.

Scheer said that world leaders in these movements will address the convention.

Museum Will Show Three Nature Films

The Museum of Natural History at the University of Minnesota announces three films to be shown at the December 7 Sunday Program.

Big Animals of Africa shows larger animals of Africa, explaining their relationship to each other and to their environment and giving examples of protective coloring and other defenses against natural enemies. Among the animals shown are the zebra, giraffe, lion, elephant, rhinoceros, hippopotamus, ostrich, flamingo, baboon and crocodile. Birds of the Prairie—this film was made in the western prairies and shows blackbirds, willets, godwits, long-billed curlews, teal, gulls, and pelicans. The film demonstrates that birds are extremely interesting and beautiful and that they constitute a cherishing resource. A fairy tale in a modern manner is the film, A Chairy Tale. This is a unique and especially entertaining movie that appears a fantasy but contains many psychological implications.

The films will be shown at 2:30 and 3:30 in the Museum auditorium free of charge.

H.P. Junior High

The parents and faculty of Highland Park Junior High will have an opportunity to chat in an informal setting. Without desks and score books they can sip coffee and get acquainted person to person. The time is Wednesday, December 10, from 3:45 to 5:15 p.m. in the school cafeteria. It will follow a teacher's meeting on human relations. Parents (mothers and fathers) save the date and plan to attend.

Highland BPW

The Highland Park Business and Professional Women's "Christmas Party" will be held Wednesday, December 10th, at the Southview Country Club. A 5:30 cocktail hour will precede the 6:30 dinner meeting.

Bring your donation of clothing, toys or gifts for the Vietnam Orphanage Project.

For reservations call Vi Follmer, 690-2129 by Sunday, December 7th.

Thursday, December 4, 1969

Christmas Music

Christmas music will be featured at the holiday dinner party of the Twin Cities Women's Traffic club Inc. Monday evening, Dec. 8, in the Normandy hotel, Fourth Ave. and Eighth St. S., Minneapolis. Dinner at 6:30 p.m. will be preceded by a cocktail hour at 5:30 p.m.

Hostesses will be Arleen Bladew, Eunice Mercier of Minneapolis, and Betty Jane Walen of St. Paul.

There will be exchange of gifts. The members also are urged to bring toys for Santa Anonymous.

Jewish War Vets

A Paid-Up-Membership Dinner sponsored by the St. Paul Post #162 of the Jewish War Veterans will be held Wednesday, December 10th, 6 p.m., at Joe's Supper Club, University and Prior.

The guest speaker will be his Honor Mayor Byrne. A program honoring all the past commanders has been arranged. Master of ceremonies is Mr. Samuel Sloane.

TWIN CITY EMPLOYMENT INCREASES

Wage and salaried employment in the St. Paul-Minneapolis metropolitan area, rose by 14,400 or 1.9% as compared to twelve months ago, according to Ros W. Sweum, Area Manager, Minnesota State Employment Service.

Sweum said that gains of 938 by electrical machinery, 684 by paper, and 648 by printing and publishing were primarily responsible for the rise of 1,700 in the manufacturing sector. Nonmanufacturing employment is up by 12,700 or 2.3%. The leading gainers were services up by 4,093, trade which added 3,746, and government which increased by 2,649. Construction and public utilities posted small declines from last year.

Between September and October, 1969, employment in the metropolitan area rose by a little over 1,000. The leading individual gainer was State government, which added 3,563 as the University of Minnesota embarked on another school year. Retail trade expanded by over 1,900. The largest loss from last month was recorded by construction which dropped more than 1,000.

Manufacturing employment is down almost 1,600 from last month. The largest decreases occurred in food, paper, "other durables" and fabricated metals.

Average weekly earnings of production workers rose from $147.97 in September to $149.31 in October. A two cent an hour increase in the average hourly pay and a .1 hour increase in the average workweek, accounted for the gain.

Unemployment in October was estimated at 12,600 or 1.5% of the work force. This compares with 15,400 or 1.8% in September and 12,600 or 1.5% in October a year ago.

Andre Previn to Conduct Minn. Orchestra

Previn has had one of the most versatile careers in the world of music, as a classic and jazz concert pianist, a serious and popular composer, an arranger, a four-time Oscar winner and for the past decade one of the most sought after guest conductors of the major symphony orchestras of the world.

Born in Berlin in 1930, he began to study music at the age of six and on moving to the United States with his family in 1939, continued his music education in Los Angeles. At 16 he got his first movie job at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer where he wrote a

The program includes the concerto for violin and orchestra in E major, featuring violinist Seth Johnson. Soprano Marguerite Hedges, voice coach at St. Catherine's, will be heard in Bach's cantata number 51.

In the early 1950s Previn abandoned his Hollywood career and, after service in the army during the Korean War, embarked on a new professional life as a conductor. In recent seasons, in addition to a two-year post as conductor-in-chief of the Houston Symphony, he has conducted the New York Philharmonic and the orchestras of Boston, Chicago, Los Angeles, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, the Royal Philharmonic in London and the Stockholm Philharmonic.

"Symphony Ball Chairmen Gather"

The first big meeting at which all the chairmen of committees will gather and plan strategy for the 1970 Symphony Ball, to be called "A Night With The Orchestra," takes place Thursday morning, December 4, at 10 a.m. in the community room of the Rosedale Shopping Center. General chairman, Mrs. Morris G. Levy, Jr., Wayzata, will preside.

The meeting place is appropriate, as the new Rosedale Center will be the scene of the ball on May 16, 1970, a benefit for the Minnesota Orchestra, which is presented each year by WAMSO.

Many of the chairmen have not even met each other, so this will be a social as well as a work meeting. Mrs. Levy has promised some "guest stars" from the Symphony board will attend. She will also tell workers about the silent auction which will be a major addition to this year's event.

Other "firsts" for this ball, the 15th presented by the Women's Association, will be made public. Mrs. Levy will point out that this party is being presented in a St. Paul suburb, rather than Minneapolis, and that the ball will honor the men of the orchestra.

In other years extraneous themes have been used to glamorize the event. This year, according to Mrs. Levy, the committee is giving honor where honor is due. The Symphony will, as always, play for the occasion, but the musicians will show their versatility. A rock, a salon and a jazz group of Symphony musicians will also play for the $50 a person dinner dance.

Chairmen to be introduced include: Mrs. Kingsley Murphy, Jr., Crystal Bay, Minneapolis chairman; Mrs. Litton Field, St. Paul, St. Paul chairman, Mrs. Edwin C. Braman, and Mrs. Donald Derauf, St. Paul, decorations; Mrs. John S. Dalrymple, Minneapolis, and Mrs. John G. Ordway, St. Paul, Honorary Ball chairmen, diamond horseshoe; Mrs. Frank Martin, Minnetonka, finances; Mrs. James Wyman, Wayzata, and Mrs. James Fullerton III, Wayzata, Mrs. John

Rogers, Dellwood, and Mrs. John Alden, St. Paul, hostesses; Mr. Jack Bros, Minneapolis, menu and arrangements; Mrs. William Gregory II, Wayzata, Mrs. John Ordway, Jr., Dellwood, and Mrs. Andrew Scott, St. Paul, patronesses; Mrs. Raymond H. Pederson, Minneapolis, programs and invitations; Mrs. Harold Siegel, Minneapolis, publicity; Mrs. David Haskin, St. Paul, St. Paul publicity; Mrs. Paul R. Thatcher, Wayzata, and Mrs. William Graham, Brainerd, regional; Mrs. Thomas Mairs, St. Paul, table maintenance; Mrs. Douglas Coleman, Jr., seating; Mr. Thomas Roe, St. Paul, ushers; Mrs. Ray Perry, Excelsior, silent auction.

Mrs. Perry's co-chairmen are Mrs. Gordon Ritz, Wayzata, and Mrs. Jule M. Hannaford, Manitou Island, with Mrs. Carroll Crawford, Northome, handling auction publicity.

Mrs. Richard Curry, Minneapolis, is Junior WAMSO representative and Mrs. Roberta Kumpf, Burnsville, represents the Business and Professional group. Mrs. Louis N. Zelle, North Oaks, is president of WAMSO.

Bus Strike Causes School Attendance To Drop 6-8 Percent

Pupil attendance in Minneapolis Public Schools has dropped between six and eight per cent below normal this week due to the bus strike, according to the school officials. In addition to regular students the largest attendance drops were reported for those attending special schools—such as the Work Opportunity Center and Vocational High School.

Concerned members of the Board of Education passed the following resolution at their regular meeting on Tuesday, November 25:

"Whereas the current bus strike, in addition to the very serious consequences which it causes to the public generally, makes it literally impossible for many public school students to attend school at all, and further creates genuine dangers for many other students, who do manage to attend school but only by walking routes which require hazardous crossings of busy highways not designed for pedestrian crossing.

"Therefore the Minneapolis Board of Education urges the Twin City Lines and the Driver's Union to cooperate with other governmental agencies in genuine effort to find some means to restore public transportation on an emergency basis for school children of Minneapolis, with or without a final resolution of the controversy between them."

School officials said that their field trip busses are being used capacity to help fill the gap usually provided by city busses.

Although final statistics for 70,000 students will not be available until next week, preliminary reports indicate that the school hit hardest by the strike was the Work Opportunity Center reporting 25 per cent below normal. Highest levels of absenteeism, due to the bus strike, were found at the junior and senior high school level because these students are the most dependent on public transportation.

Travel Tips

Miss Bertha Gronseth, Scandinavian Airlines System, will use "Tips for Travel" as her subject at the Thursday, December 18, meeting of the Minneapolis-Saint Paul Chapter of the American Society of Women Accountants. The meeting will be held at Mr. Joe's Midway Motor Lodge, 1964 University Avenue. A 6 p.m. social hour will precede the 6:30 p.m. dinner.

Reservation should be made with Helena Soderberg at 227-6501.

Senior Citizens' News

The Third Anniversary and Christmas Party and a New Year's Eve dance are but two of the highlights planned at the Wilder Senior Citizens Center, 349 Washington Street, St. Paul, in December.

Joseph Sausen will speak on "FISH," a new volunteer emergency help program, and show a color movie Thursday, December 4, at 10:30 a.m. "Someone Cares" is the title of a talk by Theodore Krammer, who will explain a proposed calling service for Senior Citizens at 1 p.m. Monday, December 6.

Leonard H. Wilkening, assistant director of the Wilder Foundation, will describe the many services provided by the Foundation and show color slides of the activities of each at 1 p.m. Wednesday, December 10. "The Costs and Values of Health Care" will be the subject of a talk by Carl F. Ave'Llement, administrator, St. John's Hospital, at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, December 17, with a question and answer period to follow.

A tour of Minnesota Mining and Manufacturing company is limited to 50, and for members only, with the bus leaving the Center at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, December 17. The monthly birthday party is planned for Thursday, December 11 at 1 p.m., with Mrs. Joseph Apfelsbacher and Mrs. Paul Rueger presenting a skit, "Christmas Eve."

Instead of the usual Monday volunteer work, all volunteers are invited to attend a "Tree Trimming Party" and help decorate the Center on Monday, December 15, beginning at 9 a.m.

Bernard E. Nash, former executive secretary of the Governor's Citizens Council on Aging, will be the featured speaker at the Third Annual Anniversary and Christmas party at 1 p.m. Thursday, December 18. His subject will be "The Value of Centers." Mr. Nash is leaving his present post as Assistant to the Commissioner of the Administration on Aging, Washington, D.C. to become the executive director of the American Association of Retired Persons and Retired Teachers.

Gareth Heibert, ("Oliver Towne"), serving as master of Thursday, December 4, 1969 ceremonies, will next introduce Leonard H. Wilkening, assistant director of the Wilder Foundation, who will speak briefly on "The Growth of the Center." His talk will be followed by a concert by the Johnson High School Madrigal Choir, and Thomas Flynn will lead the singing of Christmas carols, followed by refreshments.

Two movies will be shown at 1 p.m. Monday, December 22.

George Donnay's orchestra will play for a dance at 1 p.m. Wednesday, December 17, and Tony Gruchot's orchestra for the New Year's Eve dance at 1 p.m. Wednesday, December 31. Music for both will be provided by a grant from the Recording Industries Trust Funds obtained by the cooperation of Local #30, American Federation of Musicians.

The Center will close at noon December 24 and remain closed until the following Monday, December 29, and at 4 p.m. December 31.

Highlights of the event will be a special holiday play performed by members of a JCC Junior High Drama Class, directed by Fred Gordon. Also on the program will be the traditional lighting of the Menorah as well as group singing as special treats.

The Jewish Community Cen-

Kiwanis Auxiliary Schedules Luncheon

Kiwanis Auxiliary will have their Christmas festivities on Monday, December 8, at the St. Paul College Club. The monthly luncheon meeting was delayed a week to allow completion of the holiday decoration of the College Club.

A musical Christmas program will follow the 12:30 p.m. luncheon. "Flick Orna Fem," a Swedish singing group, will open their program with "Christmas Is" and then go on to holiday songs from around the world.

A good will offering, donated by the Auxiliary members at the December meeting each year, has been designated to Camp Kiwanis, which was damaged by fire this fall.

Mrs. David E. Marsden and Mrs. Edward S. Reid, vice-presidents of the club, arranged the luncheon and program and Mrs. Rodney C. Stassen is social chairman for the day.

NAMES IN THE NEWS

Thomas Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harland B. Jensen, 2151 Grand Avenue, was elected president of the freshman class of Hamline University.

Elected vice-president was Shirley Berg. Jean Majestic, Britt assumed the position of secretary treasurer.

ter will sponsor a five-day Winter Day Camp to be held from 10 a.m. until 3 p.m. from Monday, December 22 through Friday, December 26. Activities will include swimming, gym events, arts and crafts, outdoor fun and special events. The program is open to children in grades kindergarten through third grade. Registration may be made at the Center reception desk.

Chambers Brothers To Perform Dec. 7 At Macalester

The Chambers Brothers, four lanky sons of a Lee County, Miss., sharecropper and their English-reared drummer, who have combined to win a Gold Record for their hit album, "The Time Has Come," will appear in concert at the Macalester College Field House at 3 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7.

The four brothers — George, Willie, Lester and Joseph — and drummer Brian Keenan, produce a sound which Ebony Magazine terms "rhythm and blues which has been blended with a touch of gut-bucket and spiced with the jangling chords and note-charms of today's electric sound."

The concert will also include an appearance by the Twin City group Flash Tuesday, formerly Jokers Wild.

Tickets — $4 — are on sale at the Mac Ticket Office, Dayton's and The Electric Fetus.

"Just as their dress has evolved from the overalls of a Mississippi farm to the furry bell-bottoms and huge-collared shirts of New York and Los Angeles," Ebony said, "their style has come to be what it is through a process of slow change. In 1955, shortly after their parents and nine brothers and sisters had left the farm for the West Coast, they began making the rounds of local churches, singing their fresh-from-the-South brand of pure gospel. In 1961, they turned professional, still singing gospel, to which they added a touch of blues in 1962. By 1965, they had leaped into the pop-rock scene, getting their first major exposure at the Newport Folk Festival."

"Killing of Sister George"

Comedy relieved by a touch of tender insight will be brought to the arena stage of Theatre in the Round Players (TRP) with their production of Frank Marcus' "The Killing of Sister George." Opening December 4, the British comedy will not only begin the 18th consecutive season of TRP, community group of Minneapolis, but will officially open their new home at 247 Cedar Avenue.

"The Killing of Sister

Dr. Harvey Cox to Speak at Macalester

The Rev. Dr. Harvey G. Cox, Jr., professor of divinity at Harvard University, will preach at 5 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 7, at the weekly ecumenical worship service at Macalester College's Weyheraeuser Chapel.

Dr. Cox, author of the widely-acclaimed book "The Secular City," and "Feast of Fools," published last month by Harvard University Press, also will give the keynote address Saturday, Dec. 6, at a conference at the Macalester Chapel entitled "Priorities in the Age of Aquarius and Richard Milhous Nixon."

The conference is co-sponsored by the Minnesota Council of Churches and Minnesota Clergy and Laymen Concerned About Vietnam in cooperation with the Chaplain's Office of Macalester College. Invitations have been sent to area clergymen and the public is also welcome. The registration fee, $5, covers events including the opening address by Dr. Cox at 10 a.m.; discussion from 11 to 12 a.m., and luncheon at noon followed by workshops and a concluding rock band worship celebration.

Breck Moms

Breck Mothers' Club will sponsor a new book fair at Breck school, 4200 W. River Rd., Mpls., on Friday, Dec. 5, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

The new book fair will offer a timely opportunity for holiday buying as items for sale will include hard bound and paper back books, calendars, games, wall posters, book T shirts, book dolls, book mailers and book plates.

Thursday, December 4, 1969

"George" is a contemporary British play, using the British term for nurse of "Sister." The play concerns itself with June Buckridge, who acts the role of "Sister George" in a BBC radio serial and is being "killed off" in the part because of declining audience ratings.

"Sister George" is a hymn-singing, do-gooder district nurse. In contrast, June is a cigar-smoking, gin-drinking, hard-cursing, tough woman who is deeply involved in an emotional relationship with her young, child-like roommate. The homosexual relationship becomes a triangle with the interference of a BBC woman executive.

Pi Beta Phi Alumnae Plans Luncheon

St. Paul Alumnae Club at Pi Beta Phi sorority celebrates the month of December with an annual Christmas luncheon on Saturday, Dec. 6. A social hour will begin at noon.

Hostesses for this festive occasion are Mrs. Robert Hammel, 1028 Carlton, Shoreview and Mrs. John McNeely, 2175 Edgecumbe Rd., Highland. Reservations may be made with either hostess.

Faculty Recital

Lois Wittich, an instructor in voice in the University of Minnesota Music Department, will present a faculty recital in Scott Hall Auditorium Monday, Dec. 8, at 8 p.m.

Miss Wittich has appeared locally as a soloist with the Lake Harriet Pops Orchestra. She has also sung with the Indiana University Opera Theatre and has appeared in opera and oratorio roles on several campuses.

Last spring she was a national finalist in the Young Artists Auditions of the National Federation of Music held in Albuquerque, New Mexico.

Highlights from her Scott Hall program include Scarlatti's "Se Florindo e fedele," an aria from Handel's "Giulio Cesare," "Les Nuits d'Ete," by Berlioz and Britten's "On This Island."

Her accompanist, Geraldine Leder studied at the Royal Canadian Conservatory in Toronto. She was with the New Jersey Symphony and ballet accompanist at Jacob's Pillow.

LAST ISSUE I PROMISED TO TELL YOU ABOUT SKIING VACATIONS . . . I really didn't know what I was getting into . . . This is one time I had to do some homework . . . I'm not a skier and don't have first hand experience . . . AT ANY RATE I BEGAN BY ASKING QUESTIONS . . . there seems to be as many favorite sky slopes as there are skiers . . . THOSE WHO ONLY HAVE A WEEK-END to spare head for northern Minnesota or Wisconsin with their car loaded down with kids and equipment . . . It's a family affair . . . SKIING IS A WAY OF LIFE . . . there is a special language, special enthusiasm and certainly special skills . . . YOUNG ADULTS ROUND UP THE GANG AND GO as much for the camaraderie as for the sport . . . THE MORE SERIOUS SKIERS WITH TIME ON THEIR HANDS head for Europe and exciting ski areas known to all . . . Mont Blanc, Davos, Innsbruck, St. Moritz, Zermatt, Arlberg and the Alps lure thousands each year . . . A 14 DAY TOUR IN ANY ONE OF THESE LOCATIONS can be had for around $500, give or take a little . . . When Greeley said "Go West Young Man" he must have had the skier in mind . . . special three and four day vacation packages are offered in Aspen, Vail, Jackson Hole, Lake Tahoe, Squaw Valley and Bear Valley to mention just a few areas . . . Airlines offer interesting fares to Europe and the West alike . . . FRIENDS I'M THROWING IN THE SPONGE . . . there is no possible way for me to tell you all about this interesting subject in one column . . . I'm over my head . . . I have only one sensible suggestion . . . SEE YOUR TRAVEL AGENT . . . My Gosh, by actual measure I have a pile of folders eighteen inches high just waiting for your inspection . . . PICK YOUR SPOT and we'll round up the necessary information . . . NOW I'M GOING TO RETREAT TO SAFER GROUND . . . as you know I've asked for questions about travel . . . readers have asked me to tell them what clothing should be taken to Hawaii . . . THIS IS WHAT I WILL HAVE IN MY BAG when I take off for the islands on Dec. 20th . . . First of all I wear my heavy coat to the airport and have my daughters take it home and return it when they pick me up . . . you won't need it in Hawaii . . . I take along two sweaters, one sport and one beaded for evening . . . a folding plastic rain coat and cap must be remembered . . . I take several head scarves. It's breezy in Hawaii . . . I TAKE MY MUMUUS but any casual comfortable cotton or dacron is acceptable . . . only take a few because you won't be able to resist the beautiful polished cotton mumuus and shifts available in the islands . . . I take one dressy sheath that can be dressed up or down with jewelry . . . good for church or dinner . . . Hawaii is informal . . . you will find little use for fancy cocktail gowns . . . A cotton knit makes a comfortable travel dress and comes in handy if you run into a cool evening . . . YOU'LL NEED A SWIM SUIT and a cover if you expect to enjoy the beach or hotel pools, also a cap . . . REMEMBER all cosmetic items, film, flash bulbs etc. are available down there so don't load yourself down . . . AND IF YOU TAKE A WIG . . . WEAR IT . . . those darn wig boxes are a pain in the neck . . . they're too big to carry on board the plane and crush when handled as baggage . . . these new wigs that can be tossed in your bag are great . . . SLACK SUITS ARE POPULAR as are Bermuda length shorts, no short shorts unless of course you have the figure of a goddess . . . WITH MY FIGURE I STICK TO MUMUUS . . . you can't tell how much is me and how much mumuu .

WINSLOW HOMER GRAPHIC EXHIBITION

An extensive exhibition of over one hundred prints and drawings by Winslow Homer opens at The Minneapolis Institute of Arts on December 11.

Homer, perhaps best known for his vigorous watercolors and oils, was a fine graphic artist. His early experience as an illustrator sharpened both his observation and his draftsmanship. Scenes of camp life during the Civil War and of fashionable country life after it, frequently appeared in "Harper's Weekly" magazine.

Later, after doing a notable group of paintings dealing with man's struggle against the sea, Homer made a series of large etchings of these popular pictures.

His work in any media is direct, boldly patterned and decorative. This extensive retrospective exhibition will be in the Ground Floor Galleries until January 4.

Geometric Collages At Art Institute

Charles Wimmer will be exhibiting 20 small collages and several sculptures in The Gallery at The Minneapolis Institute of Arts from December 2 through December 31.

Wimmer, a native of St. Cloud, Minnesota, has shown extensively in the upper Midwest but this is his first one-man exhibition. His colorful abstractions are carefully arranged in geometrical patterns to activate the eye with bright and dazzling vibrations.

'U' Center Receives $200,000 Ford Grant

A $200,000 grant to the University of Minnesota Center for Comparative Studies in Technological Development and Social Change was announced today (Monday, Nov. 24) by the Ford Foundation and Dean Willard W. Cochrane of the University's Office of International Programs.

The funds will be used to continue the center's research for a three-year period in the areas of urbanization and development, the political basis of economic development and the exploration of new ideas and projects for the center.

The center was established in the Office of International Programs in 1967 for the purpose of conducting interdisciplinary research and developing theories on the relationships between technological development and social change in many different social and cultural settings. Professor Robert T. Holt is director.

Currently involved in research at the center are five University faculty members representing the disciplines of political science, anthropology, economics and mathematics. They work with collaborators in four foreign countries—England, India, Mexico and Morocco. The new grant will allow for increased participation by faculty and students.

Two field studies in which the center is involved concern "new" industrial cities in India and Mexico. The cities provide a social laboratory for the study of urbanization and development. Four basic problems are being studied in these projects: (1) the operation of the different organizational forms in these cities; (2) the attitudes of residents toward these organizational forms; (3) the patterns of migration to these cities; and (4) the effect of the new cities on the rural communities surrounding them.

Another field project, currently being conducted by the center, concerns the Berber and Arab tribes in Morocco—soon to be affected by major irrigation work there. The center has two researchers (one from the London School of Economics and one from l'Ecole Pratique des Hautes Etudes in Paris) in Morocco with the objective of establishing a base point which will identify the important similarities and differences between these two populations before the irrigation is begun. During the next three years the center will continue the study of the tribes as their incomes increase with the introduction of irrigation and new crops.

Show Postponed

The Minnesota Museum of Art (formerly the Saint Paul Art Center) announces a postponement of the museum's scheduled show, DRAWINGS BY HEINRICH KLEY, until an announced future date.

The postponement is due to compliance with the exhibition schedule of two major current exhibitions, THE WILLIAM BRILL COLLECTION OF AFRICAN ART and the TIME COVER PORTRAITS.

MBE Appointment

Lawrence Moon has been named Director of Planning Development and Federal Programs by recent action of the Minneapolis Board of Education.

Moon formerly served as an assistant director in the same department. He has been a teacher and counselor with the schools since 1956. He holds a BS and MA degree and is currently completing requirements for a PhD degree at the University of Minnesota. While on leave prior to his assignment in the office of Federal Projects, he worked as a counselor-instructor in the College of Education at the University of Minnesota and as School Services Coordinator for the Hennepin County Office of Economic Opportunity.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

As all of us take stock of our blessings this week, we at St. Paul Goodwill Industries ask special prayers for our many friends in the area reached by your paper.

To you and your fine readers we say a sincere "Thanks-For-Giving"—thanks for your interest and for the space given to inform your readers about our work, especially in this, our fiftieth year of helping the handicapped to help themselves.

Our thanks also for the response we have received from the community—without an informed public, our program of serving the handicapped would come to a standstill.

And, finally, for the handicapped workers of St. Paul Goodwill Industries, we say "Thanks-For-Giving" them a chance to earn an honest living. And we remind the public that the articles of clothing, household materials, and other contributions given to St. Paul Goodwill Industries provide work, wages and training for handicapped people employed in our sheltered workshop.

To all of you who helped, we are indeed grateful. "Thanks-For-Giving" again in 1969.

Sincerely,
John R. Metz,
Executive Director
Goodwill Industries

Dear Editor:

The Sisters at Bethany Convent wish to thank you wholeheartedly for the publicity given in THE HIGHLAND VILLAGER in connection with their Bazaar in mid-October and mid-November.

The Highland Villager is to be commended for its service to the community at large.

Thank you again for your kindness and best wishes for continued success.

Very sincerely yours,
Sister Laurena

Vote 'YES' Tuesday, Dec. 9

FOR THE PROTECTION OF YOUR HOME AND PERSON

Join with your neighbors to approve the funds necessary to maintain police protection and other city services

"The monies made available by the proposed tax will enable us to put more men out on the streets where they are needed and intensify patrol activities" says St. Paul Police Chief Lester McAuliffe. "If the tax is defeated, there is no way in sight to prevent the layoff of numerous police officers."

The emergency tax is temporary. It is for two years only—to give the powers that be time to get together and work out an equitable solution to the continuing problem of maintaining the city services that are essential to the safety and daily well being of you and your family.

The tax is figured at 10% of your state income tax. This is a small price to pay for improved police and fire protection, opening up playgrounds, keeping our libraries going, improving snow removal, street repair, and garbage collection services and the like.

St. Paul is YOUR home. You and your family need police and fire protection 24 hours each day. Essential city services are important to your daily living. Vote "YES" next Tuesday!

Launch "Career Advancement Scholarship"

"Career Advancement Scholarships" to permit women to continue their education so they will be eligible for employment or will be prepared for advancement in a business or profession have been launched by the Business and Professional Women's Foundation, it was announced by Mrs. Myra Ruth Harmon, President of the Foundation's Board of Trustees.

Candidates for the grants must show that they have a definite plan for using their training or education to help them enter the job market or progress in their careers.

In announcing the unique scholarship program, Mrs. Harmon said, "Many women find that they must have more education before they can find jobs commensurate with their needs

Andy & Friendly Lion At Area Theatre

"Andy & the Friendly Lion," an original musical play for children, produced and directed by Allen Lorenzen, opens December 4th in the Crawford Livingston Theater of the St. Paul Arts & Science Center as Area Theater's children's offering for the season.

Evening performances will be at 7:30 on Thursdays and Fridays, with matinees scheduled at 3 PM on Saturdays and Sundays. There will be Monday and Tuesday matinees on December 22, 23, 29 and 30th.

Original music has been composed by John Shave, with lyrics by Carolyn R. Fellman.

The leading characters in "Andy and the Friendly Lion" are played by C. H. Mulkey, who plays the Lion; Creighton Otrh, as Andy; Nancy Steen, as Meg; Lorraine Presaler as Ferrovia; Mark Siegel as Papa Pantalone; Richard Trombley as Elclutzus; and Melissa Mikkelsen as Emily. The total cast involves 20 Twin City performers.

"Andy and the Friendly Lion" is Area Theater's third offering of this year and will continue weekly from December 4th through January 4th. Tickets can be obtained at the Box Office of the St. Paul Arts and Science Center, 10th at Cedar, St. Paul or any Dayton's ticket office.

and talents. Other women who have been in the labor market for a number of years have been passed over for promotion because they lack certain skills. In many of these cases, the cost of additional education or training is prohibitive, so the women settle for lesser and lower paying jobs or no jobs at all.

The Foundation's 'Career Advancement Scholarship' is designed particularly for these two groups of women. It will provide the financial assistance necessary for continued education or upgrading of skills for deserving women so they can obtain a better job or enter the employment market."

The scholarship is not limited to tuition grants. If financial need is established, the award could also cover such necessary expenses as care for children or invalid dependents, living costs and transportation. However, it is expected that most awards will be for smaller amounts, covering tuition and books for relatively short courses of study. Part-time or full-time attendance is acceptable.

Because many training courses are not tied to an academic year, awards will be made throughout the year, with the first ones scheduled for Spring of 1970. The Trustees have set no age limits or specific academic requirements. But each applicant must be a U.S. citizen and must submit an explanation of financial need; details on the planned course of study or training; and a review of qualifications. BPW membership is not a requirement.

Grants will be made for a period of study not to exceed twelve months; if the grantee makes satisfactory progress, she may apply for later grants for continuation of the study or training.

Mrs. Harmon continued, "To the best of our knowledge, this scholarship is the only one of its type. As the women's working force continues to increase, women must have the proper tools for career advancement. The 'Career Advancement Scholarship' is an exciting step and the Foundation hopes that many other groups will launch their own programs to ensure that our working women are better prepared for their chosen careers."

Application forms may be obtained by writing to the BPW
