"Angel Street" Showing At Edyth Bush

"Angel Street," the Victorian era thriller by Patrick Hamilton, continues at the Edyth Bush Theatre of Hamline University, Cleveland and Eleanor, 8:30 p.m., on a Thursday, Friday and Saturday schedule through Aug. 17.

First produced under the title "Gaslight," the play takes place in the 1880's and tells the story of the Manninghams of Angel Street. Manningham, suavely sinister and handsome, attempts to drive his wife slowly insane. Mrs. Manningham is visited by Inspector Rough of Scotland Yard who seeks her help in trying to prove that her husband is a maniacal criminal wanted by the yard for a murder committed 15 years ago in the same house.

Rough's race for time in proving Manningham's guilt while working to restore the self-confidence of Mrs. Manningham, whose help he needs, provides the drama's mounting suspense.

Joseph Sax, permanent manager of the Bush is the director.

Cast as the Manninghams are Steven Hayes and Lois Laqua. Rough is played by Philip Morton and the Manningham maids are Trudy Driver and Kathy Wagner.

Second Anniversary of Medicare

In its first 2 years of operation, Medicare has paid $8.4 billion toward the hospital and doctor bills of the Nation's elderly people.

Taking note of the anniversary of the comprehensive program of health insurance for the aged, which began July 1, 1966, President Johnson stated that the program has meant "new hope and renewed health that light up thousands of lives in every community in this land."

"Medicare has paid the expenses incurred in 10.6 million hospital stays and 45 million medical bills," he said, "and more than 1 million elderly persons have received post-hospital care in nursing homes and in their own homes."

Payments under the hospital insurance program totaled $6.3 billion for the 2 year period and a total of $2.1 billion was paid out under the supplementary medical insurance program.

Many thousands of older people, who might have deferred or gone without care—and possibly died—have been able to afford treatment. Millions have the security of knowing that serious illness is no longer the financial threat that it was in the past.

The application of quality standards has contributed to an upgrading of health care that has benefited patients of all ages. And because institutions participating in the Medicare program must be in conformity with Title VI of the Civil Rights Act, members of minority groups in many communities now have access to quality care for the first time.

Involved with the Government in the operation of the Medicare program, he said, are 123 private insurance organizations—Blue Cross and Blue Shield plans and private insurance companies who receive and pay Medicare bills under contract with the Federal Government.

The Minnesota Hospital Service Association (Blue Cross) which is the intermediary for hospital claims in this area has paid out approximately $137,000,000 in Medicare funds in the two years since July 1, 1966.

Also, in the five county area served by the St. Paul Social Security district office, the Travelers Insurance Company, intermediary for that part of Medicare which covers physicians' services, is paying 25,000 claims per month for physicians' services, amounting to approximately $1,200,000 each month.

Job Center Accepts Names

The Federal Job Center will accept names to keep on file for a variety of "Limited Job Opportunities." Occasionally, Federal agencies need Aircraft Mechanics, Cooks, Lock and Dam Operators, Electrocardiograph Technicians, Telephone Operators, Military Pay Clerks, and other types of few-of-a-kind jobs. This new announcement will assure that interested applicants are notified when vacancies occur in Federal agencies in Minnesota, and the Superior, Wisconsin area.

For further information, contact the Minneapolis-St. Paul Interagency Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners (Federal Job Center), Building 57, Fort Snelling, St. Paul, Minnesota, 55111. The telephone number is 721-6391.

HAIR MAGIC

WE INVITE LITTLE GIRLS

We are particularly delighted when a wise mamma brings us her littlest darling because we are so strongly in favor of teaching the correct care of hair to the very young. Frequent shampooing with the correct shampoo is so inestimably important to encourage the growth of abundant beautiful hair.

THE 100 STROKES MYTH

Mother used to say that 100 strokes of brushing a day would do your hair worlds of good. I don't like being against Mother, but I do feel impelled to warn against too much brushing. If you are wearing your hair long there is a real danger of yanking out viable hairs that may never regrow. Incidentally, wet hair stretches further and breaks more easily than dry hair. Ten or twenty strokes at one time is quite enough to remove dead hairs and add a little polish.

WARNING TO MOTHERS!

I've said it before and I say it again—watch severe traction in dressing a child's hair. Tight curlers, ponytails, back-pull and upsweep AND those infamous 100 strokes a day could lead to baldness. Besides! Can you imagine yourself enduring that torture?

DO CONDITIONERS CONDITION?

They do, but we're frank to say that it takes some experimentation to find the exactly right one for each patron. When we do find the one you need it will do wonders. It will penetrate the outer cuticle of the hair and rectify much of the damage that might have been caused by other chemicals. Protein is the top restorative included in most conditioners. But it can only improve a damaged head of hair, not make it new again.

Twins Try Out Camp Aug. 27, 28.

Sherry Robertson, Minnesota Twins' farm director, today reported that the club's seventh annual try-out camp will be held at Metropolitan Stadium on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 27th and 28th.

"The camp is open to all boys who are eligible to be signed, have been graduated from high school, and have not yet reached their 23rd birthday," said Robertson. He advised further that all boys should bring their own equipment, except for bats and balls.

The sessions will begin at 9:00 a.m. At the conclusion of the first day's activities, a selected group will be invited back for the Wednesday drills. The boys should enter the Stadium through the Press Gate.

Several outstanding prospects from the Upper Midwest area have been uncovered in these camps in past seasons, including St. Paul's Rick Peterson, Charlie Walters of Minneapolis Edison High, former Minnetonka athlete Dennis Heger, Elysian, Minnesota's Jerry Terrell, pitcher Greg Wendorf of Scofield, Wisconsin, and hurler Gary Majdoch of Hales Corners, Wisconsin.

The try-out camp staff will include Robertson, assistant farm director George Brophy, scout Angelo Giuliani, Bill Kane, Johnny Mauer, Earl Naylor, Omy Hahn, Mike Briscese and Fritz Klark.

TWINS TALES . . . The second annual Fishermen's Night is slated for Monday, August 12, at the Met. Some 18 valuable prizes, headed by an all-expenses-paid week's fishing trip to Florida Everglades this winter with Early Wynn as guide, will be given away during a unique, pre-game fishing contest . . . Three Twins have established themselves as prime candidates for 1968 league batting honors. Rod Carew, Tony Oliva and Ted Uhlaender are all presently flirting with the 300-level . . . Camera Day is slated for Sunday, August 18, when the Baltimore Orioles will be in town. . . Twins' Clinic this week will be held at Sauk Rapids, Minn., Friday evening, and at Walker, Minn., Saturday morning.

Senior Citizens To See Twins, Tour Lakes, Downtown Minneapolis

Two trips and chartered buses to two Twins baseball games are among the highlights of the August program at the Wilder Senior Citizens Center, 349 Washington St., St. Paul.

Two of the trips are repeated on request, and each is limited to 100 persons, who must be members of the Center.

The popular "watermelon feed" will be repeated Wednesday, August 14, leaving for Island Lake Park at 10 a.m. And a three-hour "tour of the lakes" which will include Calhoun, Harriet and Lake of the Isles, downtown Minneapolis, the airport and Minnehaha Falls, scheduled to leave at 9 a.m. Tuesday, August 27.

Buses to the Twins game with

New York Thursday, August 22 leave the Center at 12 noon and are limited to 50 members each day.

All persons 60 and over are invited to bring their hobbies to the Center Monday, August 19, and to be present to discuss them with viewers at a "Share Your Hobby Day" all day Tuesday, August 20.

Anne Michaels will bring a troop of dancers to entertain with a variety show at the monthly birthday party at 1 p.m. Wednesday, August 21. Everyone is invited.

Miss Esther Larson, leader of the Center's camera club, and a member of the St. Paul Camera Club, will show slides of "Fall in New England" at 1 p.m. Wednesday, August 28.

OPINIONS

BUDGETARY POKER GAME . . .

Recently, when the Mayor and his Council decided to hold informal budget talks in private homes, Charles McCarty—in this instance—budgetary baffoon—caught the eye of the local Gazette with his wailing about free and open government. If the Gazette didn't have Charlie, they'd have to invent him, and it's rumoured that they are polishing off a mahogany desk and one of these pompous stuffed leather chairs up on the fourth floor where the Irish Editor's Mafia sit in St. Paul. Meanwhile, back at Councilman X's home the boys are gathered around one of those eight-sided poker tables arguing about the two to four million short in the pot. I think, if they can only keep the game going long enough to attract some outside money, we'd all be better off. At any rate, they should be allowed to play their respective budgetary hands with as much candor as can be kept from Charlie McCarty, and the newspaper which needs him so badly to find out what is going on in St. Paul.

THE GAY TRIBUNE . . .

If you've been reading the Mpls. Trib lately, you no doubt wonder why they pay so much attention to their homosexual "society." It seems every time you open the Trib there is some light-footed sweetheart standing around in fig leaf at so and so's party in his Kenwood dollhouse. Fact is, mod fashions, and Nicollet Avenue has brought shop couples to Minneapolis from all over America and it appears the Trib is trying to reflect the mood by making Minneapolis a jewel in the navel of the swinging American gay set. The Trib is having a difficult time adjusting to life in the big city by overloading their news columns with minority stories about both rich and poor.

OTHER MEDIA . . .

Local Radio and Television stations are breaking their necks to give us news on what's going on in the Minnesota delegations at this month's National Political Conventions. Typical of the coverage is this kind of patter: DAYTIME DISC JOCKEY ON THE WATTS LINE TO MIAMI: "Hello, Charlie, how's everything going there at the Fountain Blue?"

CHARLIE: "Yes, DJ, it's a fountain alright, and how these Minnesota delegates are drinking in festivities here this exciting and crucial election year."

DJ: "We heard on the other network in a report out of New York that Nixon has it in the bag—is that right, Charlie?"

CHARLIE: "Far as I know, Nixon's not in the bag yet, though he's been known to drink scotch in the back room."

DJ: "Is the Minnesota Delegation holding true to pre-convention form, Charlie?"

CHARLIE: "Just a minute DJ—there's old Harold Stassen—maybe I can get him over to say a few words to his friends back in Minnesota. Harold, c'mover here a minute will you . . . Harold . . . Harold . . . HAROLD — PLEASE . . ."

DJ: "Don't beg him, Charlie—what about the delegation, are they holding true to form?"

CHARLIE: "Well, DJ, that's an interesting question—we've got a form sheet here, but it's for the racetrack. There's a horse named Rah Rah Reagan . . ."

DJ: "But they are enjoying themselves, Charlie?"

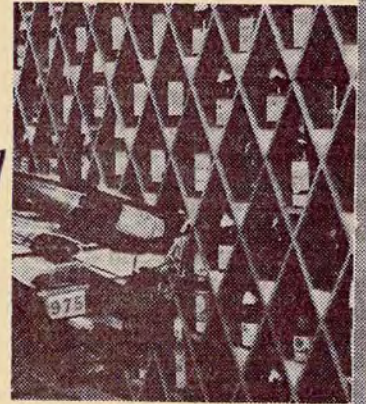

CHARLIE: "Oh yes, DJ, and even when it's over all the bad blood will mix and flow back together . . . wonderful thing about American politics, get all kinds of people together in a big noisy boozey affair and when it's over everybody goes home and forgets about what they did."

What's Going On Here

By Fillmore Flack

There's a filling station remodeling revolution: Nate Lerman, Highland Texaco, Highland Parkway and Cleveland is presently under the blade of earth movers and new construction. Norm Brausen, Ford Parkway, Skelly, is planning a unique remodeling job on his new station. Ford Parkway Standard is brand new and operated by Ralph Brausen. The Shell at Ford and Snelling is brand new, ditto the Spur Station on Randolph and Hamline. Gulf at Cleveland and Grand is newly rebuilt with a grocery and novelty shop attached. Bill Dunnigan, Parkway D-X, is grouching because he isn't getting a new toy (that's what you get for pulling for the "visitors" at Met Stadium, Bill!)

Lloyd Robinson, Robinson's Highland Den, has laid down the red carpet in his young men and adults shop on the Parkway. (I sure would like to hear Lloyd sing the hit song "Mrs. Robinson" to . . . who else?) The Robinson's are both canaries off duty.

Gibbs Farm Museum

Crafts demonstrations and special exhibits scheduled for August at the Ramsey County Historical Society's Gibbs Farm Museum, 2097 W. Larpenteur Avenue, St. Paul, are announced today.

On August 11, members of the Horseless Carriage Club of St. Paul will display their collection of old automobiles on the lawn of the museum.

Candle-dipping will be demonstrated on August 18 by Mrs. Edward J. Lettermann, museum curator. Mrs. Charlotte Pratt, 2044 W. County Road D, Roseville, will demonstrate quilting on August 25.

The museum is open daily, except Mondays and Saturdays, from 2 to 5 p.m. Until September 1, the museum also will be open until 8 p.m. each Wednesday. There is no admission charge. Tours for groups of more than 15 persons may be scheduled for other hours by calling the Ramsey County Historical Society at 646-0624.

Thursday, August 8, 1968

Have you noticed how the Highland retail people have all gone the long sideburn route? Ruby Divine, Jim Feldman, Ron Goldman to mention a few, and I'm waiting for Harold Shapira and Carl Watrud to swing out soon with the long fuzz!

Demand Chocolate pie next time you have lunch or dinner at either of Ed Berg's Lee's Village restaurants. I love the stuff, and he only has it once or twice a week. Rather than get in a lengthy harangue about supply and demand and profits in these troubled times with Ed, I have decided to force the market for my own selfish appetite by using the power of the press. Let them eat pie . . . I say . . . Chocolate pie at Lee's!
