480 Hiawatha Boy Scouts To Sell Candy Bars

Some 480 Hiawatha Branch boys will be part of a metropolitan corps of YMCA "salesmen" that will attempt to sell approximately 30 tons of candy in order to earn their way to Y summer camp.

Each YMCA candy salesman will be clearly identified with a red, white and blue carrying case. Each candy box sells for $1 and is plainly marked with the familiar YMCA red triangle.

Boys participating in this project have the opportunity to earn all or part of their summer camp fee. Hiawatha Branch YMCA boys attend Kici-Yapi day camp, Icaghowan resident camp and Menogyn, the Y's wilderness canoe camp for teenage youth located 30 miles northwest of Grand Marais on the Canadian border. Profits from the sale go directly to each participating boy.

Parents wishing to register their boy for camp may do so by contacting the Hiawatha Branch, YMCA, 4100 28th Ave. So. Minneapolis, Minnesota, 729-7397.

BAPTISTS AND LENT

John 8: 12-32

The Lenten Season is named for the period of the year in which the season falls, when the daylight part of the days is lengthening. The liturgical churches observe the period as the time during which the Lord Jesus drew closer and closer to the cross, and His death there.

Baptists are not liturgical people and have definite reasons for omitting the observance of Lent. The first of these is the fact that the resurrection of Jesus Christ is celebrated by Baptists, not only on Easter, but also on the first day of every week. That is why we call Sunday "the Lord's Day." The only possible explanation for worshipping on Sunday instead of Saturday is that Sunday worship is an observance of the resurrection of the Lord! Baptists are more conscious of worshipping a risen and victorious Christ than some others. It would be very difficult for Baptists to enter into the feelings of deprivation, of sorrow, and of remorse which many others seem to dwell upon during Lent. Baptists are too filled with the joy of the knowledge that Christ is arisen, and that He is victorious over death, and sin, and the grave.

Second, Baptists believe in an experiential religion rather than a formal or institutional religion. Baptists believe the Christian life should be lived all the time, not just a few weeks of the year. Someone has well said, "If it is wrong during Lent, it is always wrong." Baptists teach and preach against the indulgence of the flesh at all times. The Bible says, "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace" (Rom. 8:6).

Third, Baptists reject the idea that self-denial which is institutionally enforced can enhance the worthiness of the individual. Popular ideas about Lent suggest that the observance of the Lenten period with self-denial brings the observer closer to Christ and makes him more worthy of receiving forgiveness and eternal life. Baptists, however, are very conscious of the teaching of the Scripture which says: "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2: 8, 9).

Finally, Baptists believe in Christ-centered living the year around. Baptist churches offer a full program of appointments for worship, study, training, and evangelism, every Sunday of the year. On week-nights also, Baptist churches offer opportunities for Bible study, prayer, missionary study, inspiration, and training, all the year round.

A Baptist who feels he needs the spiritual experience of observing Lent is probably in need of a revival. Let him observe Lent by placing Christ first in all parts of His life. Then, let him celebrate Easter by promising the Lord to live his Lenten vows, to the glory of Christ, throughout the entire year!

"Old Kieg of Malfi" Opens at Art Institute

The Children's Theatre Company of The Minneapolis Institute of Arts will continue the original and contemporary production of "Old Kieg of Malfi" through April 14. Performances are on Saturdays at 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. and Sundays at 2 p.m. Special spring holiday performances will be given the week of April 7, every day at 2 p.m.

Summer, 1968 will be the setting for this play, created by John Donahue, Director of the Theatre. The attic of an old Victorian house is the home of "Old Kieg", a wizard-like man who entertains and delights child visitors with his astonishing magic and stories.

The production will utilize flashback and drama techniques by juxtaposing time elements and for the first time will use film as an adjunct to the play. An original music score is being composed by Roberta Carlson. Bain Boehlke will play the role of "Old Kieg" and Wendy Lehr will be "Mrs. Souse", his loony old housekeeper.

ELECTION AFTERMATH...

After listening to all the experts juggling the votes around, imagining the motives of the various blocs and otherwise fiddle faddling according to their propensities for same, I decided they were all full of beans and that Mrs. Butler won the election smashing because, after all, she's sexy.

With such a mandate, and an apparent bandwagon momentum it seems highly likely that she'll lift her hemline to mini length and sweep all but the Archbishop's vote April 30th.

There has never been such a rude interloper on the stereotyped St. Paul political scene, and if the gal in the white hat proved anything she certainly made bumpkins out the men who sell silkscreened yard signs and retouch 20 year old pictures of honest, trustworthy, experienced hardworking, energetic and qualified candidates.

Those who fret over semantics are already wondering what to call her when she's the . . . Mayoress, Mayortrix—or, as I prefer, May-dam!

Spokesmen for the GOP indicate uncertainty over how they'll instruct the Republican floatilla, but I'd guess each has his own paddle this year and will do his own navigating. I've heard that the GOP is in a quandry over whether to support Butler and beat her in two years or to support Byrne in his hour of need and sue for some cooperation. All this long range planning from the party which launched its own candidate a day before the filing deadline! Meanwhile Byrne and Butler must shudder to think of having to count on the phantom vote that GOP wigs always count best at breakfast meetings on the 4th floor of the AC.

It's up to Byrne to save the game down there, and some of the ambassadors (euphemism for peddlers) to City Hall are burning their records already. One even notes a look of apprehension on the face of the court house Indian, who, through his interpreter, Joe Mitchell, is reportedly predicting a return of breadlines and cheap marble.

The six incumbent Councilmen all fared well in the primary straw vote which usually polls their popularity fairly accurately without having to subject their full blast of yard signs to the Ides of March. The bottom six suffer the same victory a fly does when he finally catches the fly paper.

The rest of the election . . . "welcome to the continuation of flight 1968, the temperature on the ground in St. Paul is 190 degrees, now, if you'll just sit back, fasten your seat belts, turn on your TV and observe the no smoking sign when it is lit." Or as W. C. Fields had inscribed on his Boston tombstone — "I think I'd rather be in Philadelphia."

PAT AND MIKE AND TRICKY DICK

Or is it Gene and Bobby. If there are any WASPs left in the Democratic Party (that's white anglo saxon protestants) they must be cheered by LBJ's funniest line as President, "A lot of people are speculating in Gold these days, which is a primary metal—and, then, a lot of other people are just speculating in primaries." McCarthy and Kennedy will surely do more damage in Chicago this Summer than Mrs. O'Leary and her cow!

But before you start thinking bad things about the Democrats consider the fact that in this most opportune year, the Grand Old Party is trotting out stretch-sock Nixon with a fresh batch of clean, one-owner, low mileage ideas that are priced to sell only to voters who really hate Democrats.

BUSINESS NEWS

It is rumored that Guaranty Bank is planning a new building on the parking lot of Sibley Plaza Shopping Center this spring.

While down on West 7th, the Burger Chef is enjoying a nice business and some nice weather to go with it. Remember last March at this time we were up to our eyeballs in snow drifts!

Highland Park Bank's construction is on schedule and we can look for a late May or early June Grand Opening.

Highland Liquor on Randolph and Snelling is paneling, putting in a new floor and a new front on their building . . . Sally's on St. Clair and Snelling has completely remodeled and put new carpet in her dress shop . . . right next door, The Place of Gifts reported a big turnout for her open house last week . . . ditto, Smartees shop for young sophisticates which had their opening recently.

Hank Meadows—formerly at McGuire's, and now the new chef at Coleman's has a fine new menu and a good new following plus many of the old crowd coming back. Hank is on WTCN-11 with some great tips on great food at 11:30 daily.

"Data" Center Success at Cretin

During the 1967-1968 school year, the Cretin High School Data Processing Center, one of the few in the state open to instruction on a high school level, has had twenty students from Hill High School attending its last-hour class of the day. The course is in Data Processing which teaches the student how to run a punched-card processing system.

The instructor, Brother Bilbert Hines, FSC, thought it would be an advantage to the interested Hill students to offer them the course along with Cretin students. From all reports, both Cretin and Hill students are enjoying the course.

John Raitt and Nancy Dussault will head an all-star cast in the St. Paul Civic Opera's coming production of "On A Clear Day You Can See Forever."

"On A Clear Day" is the eerily funny story of a young woman who visits a psychiatrist in an effort to stop smoking. Under his spell, she finds that she can talk to flowers, read other people's thoughts, even recall her earlier life as an 18th century English belle.

New English Dept. Developed At Cretin High

Recently, with the help of Mr. Elsepeter, Director of English for the Midwest Province of the Christian Brothers, the English department under the leadership of Mr. Stolpman developed a new English curriculum for the 1968-1969 school year at Cretin High School.

The semester system as developed by the department will permit each teacher to specialize in his own particular interest within the English curriculum. The student will receive the benefit of expert teaching and a syllabus designed and initiated by a qualified and dynamic teacher.

The freshmen will continue to take English Language Arts in order to give the student an overview of what he will receive during the next three years. The sophomores will take one semester of speech and one semester of American literature. The juniors will have a semester of composition and a semester of British literature. The senior year will consist of one semester of World literature and one semester of Linguistics.

With the development and success of this program, it is hoped that the other schools of the Christian Brothers of the Midwest Province will adapt the program to their needs.
