VA Widows Benefits

An estimated 2,575 widows in Minnesota of veterans who died as the result of military service will be eligible for up to 36 months of educational assistance from the Veterans Administration beginning December 1.

John R. Murphy, manager, VA Center, St. Paul, also said that starting at that time, the wives of approximately 2,160 totally and permanently disabled veterans in Minnesota will also be entitled to VA educational assistance payments of $130 a month—up to a maximum of 36 months—for full-time institutional training.

The allowance for three-quarters time training is $95 a month, with $60 being paid for half-time training under the new law granting these widows and wives VA educational help for the first time in the history of veterans' benefits in the United States, Mr. Murphy said.

Widows and wives now eligible for this benefit will have until December 1, 1976, to complete their training under this new program, he said. Women who become eligible in the future for VA educational assistance due to the service-connected death or permanent and total disability of their husbands will have eight years to complete their training.

Murphy said eligibility of widows and wives does not depend on when their husbands served in the Armed Forces; however, he added, if a widow remarries or a wife divorces her disabled husband she loses her entitlement. It will not be necessary for eligible widows and wives to contact the VA for detailed information on this new program.

He said that in the near future the Veterans Administration will mail explanatory material with widow's dependency and indemnity compensation (DIC) checks and with compensation checks for totally and permanently disabled veterans.

"Dimes" Chairman Named Here

Deane Anklan, Ramsey county engineer, was today named as volunteer campaign director for the 1969 March of Dimes drive in Dakota, Ramsey and Washington counties.

This will be the second year that Mr. Anklan has headed up campaign activities for the Greater St. Paul chapter of the National Foundation—March of Dimes, which encompasses the three-county area, according to Bernard M. Troje of St. Paul, chapter chairman.

"Mr. Anklan will be in overall charge of organizing and coordinating the 31st annual March of Dimes appeal in these areas," Mr. Troje said. "During the campaign month of January, thousands of men and women volunteers will join him in seeking the funds needed to carry on the March of Dimes' all-out campaign to prevent crippling birth defects."

He and Mrs. Anklan and their four children live at 3101 West Owasso Blvd., Roseville.

FLOOD PLAIN MANAGEMENT TO BE TOPIC OF SEMINAR

Control and prevention of floods will be the topic for a one-day seminar at the University of Minnesota Dec. 10. The seminar, entitled "Flood Plain Management," will be held in Nolte Center on the University's Minneapolis campus.

It is designed for county and municipal officials, legislators, agricultural extension specialists, ground area usage personnel and anyone else who is concerned with recurring flood conditions in Minnesota.

J. Wesley Walters, who spent 35 years on water resource projects with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers and has been a consultant for state and private agencies since his retirement in 1965, will begin the seminar at 9:15 a.m. with a history of floods in Minnesota.

An introduction to flood plain management will be given at 10:30 a.m. by James Goddard, a Tucson, Ariz., consulting engineer. Formerly an engineer with the Tennessee Valley Authority, he was responsible for developing the Local Flood Relations Program, which provided information and counsel to more than a hundred communities vulnerable to floods.

Goddard will discuss identification of flood plains, flood frequencies, land use regulation, insurance and engineering measures.

James Ringenoldus, head of the water resources division of the Harza Engineering Co. of Chicago, will speak at 11:30 a.m. on structural measures for flood plain management.

At 1:30 p.m. James Goddard will discuss economic and social aspects of flood plain management, and at 2:30 p.m. St. Paul attorney Frank Murray will speak on legal aspects of Minnesota flood plain management. A panel discussion and summary will close the institute.

Information is available from the Department of Conferences and Institutes, Nolte Center, University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, Minn. 55455; telephone (612) 373-3151.

St. Thomas Seniors To Give "Antigone" Fri. & Sat., Dec. 6-7

Saint Thomas Academy will present its Senior Class Play, "Antigone," at 8 p.m., Friday, Saturday and Sunday, December 6, 7, and 8 in the Student Union at the Academy, Mendota Heights.

"Antigone" as written by Sophocles was set in Greece, but the Reverend Thomas Kolar, Academy drama coach, has changed the setting to Africa to emphasize the primitive aspects of the play. The problem of a conscientious dissenter is more prevalent in emerging societies like those in Africa than in already established societies. In this first tragedy to be presented at the Academy the actors will wear masks in order to depersonalize the ideas presented. Participating with the cadets are girls from Our Lady of Peace High School. The cast is as follows: Joseph Feidler as Creon; Sue Westra, Antigone; Joe Borowicz, chorus leader; Rick Wirth, Haimon; Chris Bohrman, Ismene; Steve Anderson, Teiresias; Pat Emerson, Eurydice; Frank Farrell, Sentry; Mark Mishak, Messenger; members of chorus, Molly McGrath, Annette LeClair, Robert Tenner, Mike Kelly, Joe McGuire; Mark Zimmerman, Teiresias guide; Dave Dorle and Jerry Cronk, police guards.

Bishop O'Grady's Peace Corps

by Mary Jane Mertz

Bishop Fergus O'Grady has a vast diocese (133,750 square miles) that is not only a great challenge to the charity in men's hearts but also his ingenuity. Born and founded in 1956 by the Bishop, the idea of inviting young and old (age 21-60 years) to a new frontier to serve the ever-growing Indian and white population of the "top half" of British Columbia in the Diocese of Prince George. This Frontier Family has attracted over 700 volunteers in the last twelve years from 20 different countries! This year alone there are 170 laymen in the diocese 'hailing' from 9 different countries. If you are seeking fortune or fame, this is not the place to come because they receive $25 a month and board and room. "Dedication," states the Oblate Bishop, "is the essential element."

Volunteers in all walks of life come to serve the poor . . .

nurses, teachers, secretaries, bus-drivers, cooks, electricians . . . living in the Peace River country and throughout the B.C. interior, from the Rockies to the Pacific, permeating Christian ideals in the small cities and towns of this Canadian Frontier. Many stay only for one year, some longer. This year 61 volunteers are in their second year or more!

Enthusiasm, sense of humor, and a zest for living are the key-notes of the priests, sisters, and lay volunteers who work closely with the leadership of their dynamic Bishop.

New volunteers are constantly in demand . . . won't you join our Frontier Family?

HAIR MAGIC

YOUTH INHERITS THE EARTH TODAY

It's a healthy trend, too, if youth is defined as a state of mind which appreciates the importance of having fun regardless of the date on the birth certificate. A few things have to be lasting in the midst of so much impermanence and nothing seems to typify today's have-a-fling mood of gaiety better than our body-wave permanents. The "In-Thing" is carefully designed hair that will stand both heat and moisture as well as extreme cold weather.

THE GLO-GIRL GO-GIRL LOOK

They call it the new New York Look—a look that's sweeping the country and is the "in" look everywhere in the world. It's the look that goes with fun, and action, and with the jet age of today. Hair swings... it's neat, smooth, straight, or curly, and shining but with that oh, so carefully hairdressed look. Dresses swing... they move easily and naturally. And yet, the look is for women of all ages. The knack of getting your own cool, correct New York look takes a few rules, a little know-how and how-not! We're ready to help you find the exact right interpretation for you.

COME CELEBRATE WITH US!

This is the month of holidays and the only way we can make the most of the holidays is to make the most of your good looks. Make this the month you get acquainted with our shop—or, if you're an old friend already, come back for a reunion. We'll give you a new hairstyle so beautiful, all the world will know that you believe in Beauty—and that's a woman's birthright.

Open Housing Campaign Planned Southwest Area

Volunteers are needed to participate in an open housing campaign which is scheduled for the month of January. The drive is being planned and conducted by the newly formed Southwest Citizens for Open Housing.

A total of five hundred workers is needed. At present the group has organized two hundred volunteers. The area covered will encompass Marshall Avenue south to West Seventh Street and Lexington Avenue west to Mississippi River Boulevard. Volunteers please call Mrs. Thomas Oson, 14440 Lincoln, 698-9309 or Mrs. L.C. Branca at 1795 Lincoln, 699-1115.

A sensitivity meeting for volunteer workers will be held Sunday, January fifth at Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, 1550 Summit Avenue.

R. Mullerleile Elected St. John's Alumni President

Richard Mullerleile, 1030 Lombard Street, Saint Paul, was elected President of the Twin City Branch of the Saint John's University Alumni Association. Justin O'Connell, 3201 Bell Lane, N.E., Minneapolis, was elected Vice President; Gerald Rummell, 1852 Juliet Avenue, Saint Paul, Secretary; and Wayne Belisle, 1816 Birch Street, White Bear, Treasurer. Graduate School Admission Test

The admission Test for Graduate Study in Business (ATGSB) will be offered on Feb. 1, April 12, July 12 and Aug. 9, 1969, announced the Educational Testing Service (ETS), which prepares and administers the test. It will be given on the University campus.

A candidate for admission into a graduate business school is advised to inquire as soon as possible if the school of his choice wishes him to take the test. The University of Minnesota School of Business Administration does require this test for entrance into its graduate program.

The ATGSB is not designed to test specific knowledge in specialized academic subjects. There are no questions which presume that the candidate has taken any undergraduate work in the business area.

Sample questions, as well as information regarding registration and administration of the test and a list of requiring schools, are given in a Bulletin of Information, which should be obtained six weeks before the desired testing date. It may be ordered from ATGSB, Box 966, Educational Testing Service, Princeton, N.J. 08540.

Major Film Awards to Local Producer

One of the top ten major awards for U.S. nontheatrical films competing in foreign film festivals was won by Reid H. Ray Film Industries for their United Air Lines film "Discover America." The award was from the Second Castellon (Spain) International Week of Tourism Films. This is the seventh film festival award this motion picture has garnered in 18 months. At the CINE (Council on International Nontheatrical Events) Awards festival in Washington last weekend the Reid Ray firm also was awarded a Certificate from the XV Rome International Teleradio-Cinematographic Exposition for the same film, and at the BRNO (Czechoslovakia) Film Festival another United Air Lines film made by the Ray firm, "Invitation to the West" received a second prize in the Motfilm Forum. A fourth award, for an earlier film, "Discover Hawaii," came from the Tehran Second International Festival of Films for Children.

Reid Ray, who is current president of CINE presented 163 Golden Eagle Awards to U.S. film producers of nontheatrical television documentary, short subject, and youth made films. More than 600 films were screened by CINE to select the winners. These winning films will be submitted by CINE to foreign film festivals during 1969. One of the Golden Eagle awards was also won by the Reid Ray Company for their Allis Chalmers film "The Challenge of Six Billion."

St. Leo's Guild

Father Jerome Rohrer, S.J., retreat master at the Jesuit Retreat House, Demontreville Road, No. St. Paul, will address the women of St. Leo's Guild at their Communion breakfast Saturday. His topic will be "A Meaningful Meeting with Christ, Confession 1968."

Breakfast will be served in the school hall following the 8:30 Mass.

W. C. Fields Movie At St. Thomas

"The Bank Dick," one of the funniest movies ever made by W. C. Fields, will be shown at The College of St. Catherine Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at 8 p.m. in Jeanne d'Arc auditorium.

The W. C. Fields comedy is another in the series of film classics entitled "Film 8/9" which the college is presenting during the current year.

The series represents not only the best American films, but the best of foreign movies as well. Directing the program at St. Catherine's is George Poletes, assistant professor of speech and drama.

Jewish Community Center News

By Thelma Fox

An exhibition of lithographs by Marc Chagall, renowned Jewish artist, will be shown throughout the month of December at the Jewish Community Center.

Coordinated by the B'nai B'rith Jewish Historical Committee in honor of the artist's 80th birthday, the traveling show includes twenty lithographs, a color portrait of the artist, and twelve color prints of the famed Jerusalem stained glass windows done by Chagall. The exhibit features biblical, French, and East European themes.

Colorful holiday decorations through the building will set the stage for the many festive Chanukah programs and activities at the Jewish Community Center. Chanukah is celebrated for 8 days starting December 15, when the Center will hold its annual Children's Chanukah Party from 3-4 p.m. After the traditional lighting of the Menorah, each of the three Center Children's Drama Groups will present one-act plays, under the direction of Lorrie Cohen. Also on the program are holiday musical numbers by the JCC Choral Group, directed by David Meiri.

Participants in the different Center clubs and playgroups, the JCC Nursery School, and JCC-BBYO teen clubs will observe the occasion with special programs. Senior adults will note the holiday with gala musical programs on Tuesday, December 17 and Thursday, December 19.

Israeli students, now attending colleges in the Twin Cities area, are invited to a special Chanukah celebration at 8 p.m., Saturday, December 14, at the Center. About 100 persons are expected to attend the vent.

SOLUTIONS

The solutions to our problems are not going to be found in any new and brilliant idea. They are going to be found in making the old, proven ideas work—an honest day's work, respect for the given word, living within income, and the willingness to make necessary sacrifices to attain a worthwhile goal.

What's Going on Here...

"Happiness truly (in addition to being rather poor syntax) is buying your Christmas Tree from the St. Paul Jaycees." So it says in the flyer put out by the group. We hasten to add—several other worthwhile organizations sell Christmas Trees and wreaths as their "only" source of income in St. Paul.

There is a public hearing on the rezoning of Pinehurst avenue directly behind Hove's food store this morning at City Hall.

Highland Village and local area merchants are ready for the heaviest onslaught ever of Christmas shoppers as the daily traffic picks up. (Being an old vet, I suggest 10 a.m. as prime time for getting the most accomplished on one trip.

"Danny's Reason's" a well known group in Minneapolis made their first St. Paul appearance at Pudge's on the Parkway last Sunday night and packed in a SRO well-dressed, well behaved crowd of middle-twenty types. Some of the mod-fashion-ed girls were outstanding... the group will play Sunday and Monday nights, with "Monday's Men" and "Tuesday's Men" providing two other distinct styles the other five nights.

Somebody said the Vikings were "sick last week." "Sicker than usual," was the reply.

Everybody's talking about building a Parking Ramp in Highland Village except the people who own land where one could be built.

It appears all that money St. Paul got for Rat Control is being used for something else—or are those really mice I've been seeing in the alley between Ford Parkway and Pinehurst. (Reportedly, there's a guy who's shooting them with a 22, saving them in a freezer and building a case to present in City Hall.) Anybody know a Pied Piper?

The musical comedy, Anne Crosswell's adaptation of Oscar Wilde's "The Importance of Being Earnest," spoofs the manners of Victorian England. It will be directed by Douglas P. Hatfield, assistant professor of dramatic arts.

Tickets are on sale at the Box Office, 647-6343, and the Mac Ticket Office, 647-6297, or may be purchased at the door.

Wall Sculpture At Sky Gallery

Ingenious metal wall sculpture by Shirley Hanson, Hopkins, will be displayed during December at the Sky Gallery, 950 South Robert Street, West St. Paul.

Her exhibit features a variety of contemporary compositions of enamel on copper with powdered glass fused to the copper creating color accents. "Migration", "City On A Hill", and "Summer Bouquet" are some representative titles which convey the vibrant mood of these striking objects of art.

The Gallery is now open every Sunday from 2 to 5 as well as regular visiting hours: Tuesday through Saturday, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. and Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. The Sky Gallery displays the works of many well known Twin City artists. The art items vary in design and would add beauty to any home.

St. Catherine Christmas Concert

A Christmas concert will be presented at the College of St. Catherine at 8 p.m. Sunday, Dec. 8, in Jeanne d'Arc auditorium. It is open to the public without charge.

Featured in the program will be the Collegium Musicum and the CSC-CST Chorale which are musical organizations composed of students from the College of St. Catherine and the College of St. Thomas.

They will perform "Christmas Oratorio" by Heinrich Schuetz and "Christmas Cantata" by Daniel Pinkham.

The Schuetz composition dates from the early 17th century. It will be performed by the Collegium Musicum under the direction of Albert Biales of St. Catherine's music department.

The small orchestras that accompanies the choir and singers will be made up of instruments used during the early baroque period . . . viola da gamba, recorders, cornetto (a wooden trumpet-like instrument), sackbuts (early trombones) and harpsichord.

The Pinkham composition dates from the 20th century. It will be performed by the CSC-CST Chorale and CSC-CST brass choir under the direction of Earl Norwood.

Norwood, who serves the music department of both colleges, will also direct the CSC-CST Chorale in other Christmas compositions.

A second performance will be given at 11:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 10, in the lounge of Murray hall at the College of St. Thomas.

Serving as narrator during the Christmas concert will be Dr. Benedict Hardman, assistant professor of speech and English at St. Catherine's.

Bloomington Theatre Gives Children's Show

A children's show, featuring a magician, a witch and a giant, will be staged by the Bloomington Civic Theatre for three weekends starting Dec. 7-8.

"Sir Slob and the Princess" is billed as a medieval fantasy for youngsters and adults.

The show deals with a country bumpkin who must meet several difficult tests to win the hand of the beautiful princess. He avoids being squashed by the giant and being torn apart by the lion.

On Saturdays (Dec. 7, 14 and 21) the shows will be given at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. On Sundays (Dec. 8, 15 and 22), the times will be 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. The two performances on Dec. 14 are sold out to the Children's Hospital Guild.

Reservations for groups of 10 or more may be called to the box office 884-2309. The theater is at 10025 Penn Ave. S.

TAP CITY . . .

The Mayor's proposal for a Hotel and Motel tax points squarely to the "end of the road" (quotes mine) regarding ways and means to solve or alleviate the City's financial crisis. It is no longer a matter of partisan concern that the city is broke—there are elections for that—it is, rather, a time for people living within the City Limits to fish or cut bait on whether they want a first class city or something less. The Hotel and Motel tax of itself is undesirable and incongruous with the new progressive commercial climate of the core city. Again, the Mayor appears to be the victim of some bad advice from his colleagues, whose competence is best measured by their inventions in the past three years: to wit; the garbage tax proposal, the telephone tax proposal, the water tax, and the sophomoric and politically encumbered Charter Proposal. The recent referendum for increased taxing authority was in a class by itself for its negative approach—and, worse, for the small amount of money spent on communicating its basic "we are broke, help us out" theme.

If nihilism is not, in fact, the prevailing mood of the current administration, it is difficult to locate any optimism or leadership strong enough to carry either the day or the message to the people of St. Paul in a positive way. A lack of positive thinking has been the problem on 4th and Wabasha ever since the politicians became mesmerized by the irrelevant and totally unimportant Butler-Rosen, Butler-Byrne opera. Mayor Byrne, in honesty, has been the victim of negative politics and negative government, but has shown little, if any inclination, to redress the problem by making an effective contact with the people and selling his programs. That many of these programs had little merit and have been rebuked by the voters overwhelmingly, coupled with the fact that the Mayor was re-elected handsomely to a second term is a paradox only made possible by the Butler phenomena. Mrs. Butler's motives need not be questioned, nor the integrity of her bid for the Mayor's office—yet in sum—her methods of political exploitation and the willingness of a bored press to amplify her incessant carping has set the city back a decade in four years of childish political nit picking. Throw in the antics of the Court House research director, historian and curator of the marble indian, one Charles McCarty, and you must see the total price we have all paid for all the laughs we've had since somebody shoveled the wrong sidewalk on Summit Avenue. Some shovel. Some snow!

The case then, if for no other reasons than those mentioned above, rests with the voters, and since all the politicians and other actors on the local political scene are down in the mouth, it is time for the people to start thinking about how much money it will take to do the job of making St. Paul a better city.

In the Spring of 1970, we can decide if there's anybody around who can spend it wisely. Meantime, I say give it to the group that's in, before they trim every department back to relatives and friends and blame it all on us.

STATE U MONSTER . . .

The U. of M. budget is the biggest gyp in your state tax dollar. The University grows, like Everest, simply "because it's there," and the State loses a frighteningly high percentage of graduates to other states each year. The whole basis of State Universities and Land Grant institutions for higher learning is outmoded in the jet and space age. The local university is a part of the national education system and should be supported through tuition and Federal money entirely. Industry is not attracted to the state because it has a fine institution of higher learning—they simply send their recruiters out for manpower, and locate where there are tax, labor and other advantages. All the old arguments do not stack up. However, a slick army of lobbyists and public ignorance, form an unbeatable combination in the Legislature each biennium. In a day when the quality of life in America is being severely tested by the academic community and their militant student bodies, it would seem appropriate they be asked to pay for their privilege. We could at least hope the students could lighten our tax burden by half the amount they spend on booze and narcotics while matriculating.

POTPOURRI . . .

The DFL is having its problems in Minnesota—to be sure—but don't be surprised if the pendulum swings, and it is the GOP which finds itself embroiled with internal problems in the very near future. Before it's over, there might be a new party chairman. At any rate, it is difficult to see how the Chairman, the Governor, the Attorney General and the Lt. Governor can all get on the same wave length when Humphrey comes back to town!

We acknowledge a letter from Doug Young, Ramsey County Chairman of the GOP in which he cited an error in the last column in the number of a Legislative District and in the denomination of the Minister who defeated Jack Morris. Tsk, tsk, Doug, at least we had everybody's party designation correct—which is more than we can say for some of the people on your sample ballots recently!

I'll have a poster out Dec. 15th entitled "LIKE IT IS IN ST. PAUL" which will sell for a dollar and a half. I'm having a difficult time finding a printer in St. Paul who'll be responsible for it, so I may have to print it in Minneapolis—which, of course, is one of the reasons I feel a compunction about doing it at all. You may order it from me here (Ron B., 1965 Ford Pkwy, 55116) which might not be a bad idea since it is questionable many shops would care to jeopardize their upstanding relations in the community by selling it. In addition to carrying a moody flattering photo of me—a messy business, ego—it will contain quipsically entertaining comments on the establishment, people and events which more or less comprise the citizen's bill of fare in St. Paul. (Not recommended for those who are still on the pabulum!)
