

Emergency Phone Calls!
FIRE — WY 4-0901
POLICE — 368-4801

THE NEWARK POST

For News
Of People You Know
Read The Newark Post

The Newark Post, Newark, Delaware, Thursday, September 5, 1963

PRICE SEVEN CENTS

New, 45 Student Teachers Introduced To Newark Faculty

Wilmer E. Shue Launches Pre-School Conference
At New Christiana High Building; Dr. Robert L. Jenks
Receives Ovation From Audience As Principal Speaker

The annual pre-school conference of the Newark special school district opened Tuesday in the auditorium of the Christiana High School with Superintendent Wilmer E. Shue presiding. The theme "Changing Times and Their Implications" was introduced by Dr. George V. Kirk, new superintendent for instructional services, and 45 student teachers joining the staff from the University of Delaware.

1200 Youth, Adults Take Part In GNRA Baseball Program

Ass't Director Tom K'Burg
Cites Adults For Aiding
With Recreation Schedule

Tom K'Burg, ass't director of the Greater Newark Recreation Association, reports "a very full and successful baseball program for both youngsters and adults."

Cotillion President Michael J. Rucidlo Wins Promotion At Southern States

Michael J. Rucidlo, manager of Newark's Southern States Cooperative plant for the past three years, has been promoted to regional feed supervisor for Southern States in the Baltimore office.

Four Newark Area Youths Enlist With U. S. Navy

Four young men from the Newark area enlisted in the Navy during the month of August.

Wins National Honor

Wm. R. Kent, Jr. selected by FFA for National Honor

Chrysler Receives Order Of $140,360 For Truck Parts

The Chrysler parts plant at Newark has received an order for $140,360 worth of truck parts being sold overseas under provisions of the U. S. foreign aid program.

U. D. Publication Wins Top Honors In National Test

A University of Delaware publication has received top honors in the 1963 American Association of Agricultural College Editors national communications contest, according to Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics.

Two Newark Girls Enroll To Attend Wells College

Two Newark girls — Carolyn F. Colburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dew of 49 Winslow Road, and Constance J. Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown Reinhardt of 23 Indian Road — are enrolled as students for the new term at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

Speech Therapy Benefit Scheduled Next Thursday

The speech therapy benefit dessert-party sponsored by the Suburban Newark Women's Club, will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Alice Smyth YWCA Center in Newark, with Mrs. Paul Downs, general chairman.

Creator Of Bertie The Bunyip To Appear With Puppets at Newark Shopping Center

Lee Dexter, children's entertainer on Philadelphia TV, will present a puppet show at the Newark Shopping Center at 2 p.m. this Saturday.

Greeters Newcomer Club To Meet At Local YWCA

"Greeters Newcomer Club welcomes Newark newcomers, and whether you are Miss or Mrs. the club extends an invitation for you to meet other newcomers at the YWCA in Newark on Sept. 9 at 8 p.m.," Mrs. Joseph Angotti, Jr. reports.

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell Takes Combat Training

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton P. Howell of Newark, completed four weeks of individual combat training recently at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

The New Christiana High School for Newark

The new $4,000,000 Christiana High School was opened today at the corner of Salem Church and Chopin roads, after a year and a half of construction. The building, with the library in the second floor center. This is the view one will see from Chopin Road. There is an open area — a bus waiting court — beneath the library.

Newark Cotillion Dates Announced For Youth Dances

Dates have been announced for the three dances sponsored by the 1963-64 Newark Cotillion.

Three CAP Cadets Of Newark Attend Naval OCS Session

Three Newark CAP cadets recently attended officer candidate school at Bainbridge Naval Base, Md.

11-Year-Old Girl Injured As Bike, Auto Collide

An 11-year-old Windy Hills girl was seriously hurt in a collision of her bicycle and an automobile early Saturday night.

QUICK RECOVERY

University of Delaware football captain John Scholoto lost the pregame coin toss seven consecutive times in 1962. But the Blue Hens, who finished 7-2 for the season and won the Lambert Cup, recovered to gain a halftime lead in every game.

RED ROSE RENT

The 232nd red rose rent of the earliest Red Rose rent deed discovered in this country will be observed on Red Rose Rent Day this Saturday, from 11 a.m. 'til dark, at Star Rose Gardens on US-1 two miles south of West Grove, Pa. This annual event is open to the public.

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell Takes Combat Training

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton P. Howell of Newark, completed four weeks of individual combat training recently at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

Speech Therapy Benefit Scheduled Next Thursday

The speech therapy benefit dessert-party sponsored by the Suburban Newark Women's Club, will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Alice Smyth YWCA Center in Newark, with Mrs. Paul Downs, general chairman.

Creator Of Bertie The Bunyip To Appear With Puppets at Newark Shopping Center

Lee Dexter, children's entertainer on Philadelphia TV, will present a puppet show at the Newark Shopping Center at 2 p.m. this Saturday.

Greeters Newcomer Club To Meet At Local YWCA

"Greeters Newcomer Club welcomes Newark newcomers, and whether you are Miss or Mrs. the club extends an invitation for you to meet other newcomers at the YWCA in Newark on Sept. 9 at 8 p.m.," Mrs. Joseph Angotti, Jr. reports.

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell Takes Combat Training

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton P. Howell of Newark, completed four weeks of individual combat training recently at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

RED ROSE RENT

The 232nd red rose rent of the earliest Red Rose rent deed discovered in this country will be observed on Red Rose Rent Day this Saturday, from 11 a.m. 'til dark, at Star Rose Gardens on US-1 two miles south of West Grove, Pa. This annual event is open to the public.

Michael J. Rucidlo Wins Promotion At Southern States

Michael J. Rucidlo, manager of Newark's Southern States Cooperative plant for the past three years, has been promoted to regional feed supervisor for Southern States in the Baltimore office.

Four Newark Area Youths Enlist With U. S. Navy

Four young men from the Newark area enlisted in the Navy during the month of August.

Wins National Honor

Wm. R. Kent, Jr. selected by FFA for National Honor

Chrysler Receives Order Of $140,360 For Truck Parts

The Chrysler parts plant at Newark has received an order for $140,360 worth of truck parts being sold overseas under provisions of the U. S. foreign aid program.

U. D. Publication Wins Top Honors In National Test

A University of Delaware publication has received top honors in the 1963 American Association of Agricultural College Editors national communications contest, according to Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics.

Two Newark Girls Enroll To Attend Wells College

Two Newark girls — Carolyn F. Colburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dew of 49 Winslow Road, and Constance J. Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown Reinhardt of 23 Indian Road — are enrolled as students for the new term at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

Speech Therapy Benefit Scheduled Next Thursday

The speech therapy benefit dessert-party sponsored by the Suburban Newark Women's Club, will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Alice Smyth YWCA Center in Newark, with Mrs. Paul Downs, general chairman.

Creator Of Bertie The Bunyip To Appear With Puppets at Newark Shopping Center

Lee Dexter, children's entertainer on Philadelphia TV, will present a puppet show at the Newark Shopping Center at 2 p.m. this Saturday.

Greeters Newcomer Club To Meet At Local YWCA

"Greeters Newcomer Club welcomes Newark newcomers, and whether you are Miss or Mrs. the club extends an invitation for you to meet other newcomers at the YWCA in Newark on Sept. 9 at 8 p.m.," Mrs. Joseph Angotti, Jr. reports.

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell Takes Combat Training

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton P. Howell of Newark, completed four weeks of individual combat training recently at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

RED ROSE RENT

The 232nd red rose rent of the earliest Red Rose rent deed discovered in this country will be observed on Red Rose Rent Day this Saturday, from 11 a.m. 'til dark, at Star Rose Gardens on US-1 two miles south of West Grove, Pa. This annual event is open to the public.

Fair Hill Race Meet To Begin Saturday On du Pont's Estate

William du Pont To Be Host For Annual Two Saturdays
Of Hurdle, Flat Racing For Benefit Of Union Hospital
At Elkton; Cattle Show To Inaugurate Event This Week

The two-day Fair Hill race meet conducted annually over William du Pont's estate for the benefit of Union Hospital, will be launched this Saturday and has been customary in recent years, the second day of the meet will be the subsequent Saturday, Sept. 14.

University Days For Women Slated Friday, Saturday

Economics Extension Unit
Offers 2-Days On Campus
For State's Homemakers

It's back to school time for nearly 200 Delaware homemakers who will attend University Days for Women on the Delaware Campus this Friday and Saturday, but instead of the "three R's" women will study such subjects as putting a designer's touch on the clothes they make; experimental cooking; creative art, and flower arranging.

Real Help!

Last year, Union Hospital in Elkton — beneficiary of the race meet — received $4,498 as a result of two days of sport. If present expectations are fulfilled, there is likelihood that this figure will be exceeded by the growing popularity of Fair Hill.

4 Newark Students Enroll At Lehigh In Freshman Year

Four Newark students have enrolled as freshmen at Lehigh University for the 1963-64 term.

Chrysler Receives Order Of $140,360 For Truck Parts

The Chrysler parts plant at Newark has received an order for $140,360 worth of truck parts being sold overseas under provisions of the U. S. foreign aid program.

U. D. Publication Wins Top Honors In National Test

A University of Delaware publication has received top honors in the 1963 American Association of Agricultural College Editors national communications contest, according to Dr. William E. McDaniel, chairman of the department of agricultural economics.

Two Newark Girls Enroll To Attend Wells College

Two Newark girls — Carolyn F. Colburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dew of 49 Winslow Road, and Constance J. Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown Reinhardt of 23 Indian Road — are enrolled as students for the new term at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

Speech Therapy Benefit Scheduled Next Thursday

The speech therapy benefit dessert-party sponsored by the Suburban Newark Women's Club, will be held next Thursday at 8 p.m. at the Alice Smyth YWCA Center in Newark, with Mrs. Paul Downs, general chairman.

Creator Of Bertie The Bunyip To Appear With Puppets at Newark Shopping Center

Lee Dexter, children's entertainer on Philadelphia TV, will present a puppet show at the Newark Shopping Center at 2 p.m. this Saturday.

Greeters Newcomer Club To Meet At Local YWCA

"Greeters Newcomer Club welcomes Newark newcomers, and whether you are Miss or Mrs. the club extends an invitation for you to meet other newcomers at the YWCA in Newark on Sept. 9 at 8 p.m.," Mrs. Joseph Angotti, Jr. reports.

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell Takes Combat Training

Marine Private Kenneth E. Howell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Burton P. Howell of Newark, completed four weeks of individual combat training recently at Camp Lejeune, N. C.

RED ROSE RENT

The 232nd red rose rent of the earliest Red Rose rent deed discovered in this country will be observed on Red Rose Rent Day this Saturday, from 11 a.m. 'til dark, at Star Rose Gardens on US-1 two miles south of West Grove, Pa. This annual event is open to the public.

Problem of Rapid Suburban Development Raises Cost, UD Booklet Authors State

Rapid suburban development is leaving numerous tracts of idle, unused land on the fringe of cities, according to a new University of Delaware publication "Idle Land In An Urbanizing Area: The Delaware Experience."

Two Newark Girls Enroll To Attend Wells College

Two Newark girls — Carolyn F. Colburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Walter A. Dew of 49 Winslow Road, and Constance J. Reinhardt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. Brown Reinhardt of 23 Indian Road — are enrolled as students for the new term at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.