'Jesus Christ Superstar' gets Legend-ary treatment

By K.A. Taylor
TV Media

In the late 1960s, musical theater was getting a complete makeover. For years, the genre did its best to avoid serious subjects, keeping joy and whimsy in the forefront. While it seemed for a time that interest in this form of theater was waning, a new breed of musical theater would resurrect the genre. Rock was woven into the pages of fresh, new takes on biblical narratives and, in 1970, "Jesus Christ Superstar" was born. On Sunday, April 1, NBC brings this legendary rock musical to audiences across North America, when "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" takes over prime time.

Initially a concept album, "Jesus Christ Superstar" delves into the last days of Jesus Christ, with particular focus on the relationships between Jesus and some well-known biblical figures, including Judas, Mary Magdalene and King Herod. The show plays fast and loose with depictions of these figures, as the musical's creators, Andrew Lloyd Webber and Tim Rice, look to humanize them and make them relatable. The lines between God and man are blurred, with Jesus unafraid to confront modern-day social issues.

While the musical has no doubt been performed in countless high schools and independent theaters around the globe, its professional runs have been consistent since the concept album's creation, with more than 19 productions, including four on Broadway.

For NBC's live, prime-time adaptation, some major star power has been recruited. In the titular role of Jesus Christ is singer, songwriter and actor John Legend ("La La Land," 2016). Not only is Legend the star of the production, he is also co-producer. When asked by The Paley Center for Media to express why he was intrigued by the opportunity, Legend's answer was amusingly simple: "Bottom line is, they offered me the chance to play Jesus Christ ... I was like, let's do it."

While this is Legend's first leading role in a televised musical, it's not his first screen gig — he played the role of Keith in the multiple award-winning feature musical film "La La Land" in 2016. He also co-wrote and recorded a song with the film, "Start a Fire," enjoying a rare opportunity to contribute to a musical's score.

Joining Legend onstage — and on screen — is singer-songwriter Sara Bareilles as Mary Magdalene, a notable follower of Jesus, according to biblical records. Sadly, she was known less for her witnessing of Christ's crucifixion and resurrection and more so for her profession as a sex worker, a depiction not entirely present in the gospels or other biblical texts. Another key player in the musical, one well familiar with its story and lyrical content, is legendary rocker Alice Cooper. Cooper takes on the role of King Herod, a ruler who lives for excess and decadence and fails to see the divinity of Christ, declaring him a liar.

This isn't Cooper's first time in the role: a 1996 cast recording of "Jesus Christ Superstar" also featured him as the king. Sitting at The Paley Center's discussion on this anticipated televised production with his fellow cast and crew, Cooper expressed his feelings about returning to the role. According to Cooper, Tim Rice is an "old friend of [his]," and it was Rice who long believed Cooper had the "[cynicism] and dangerous" nature required for the part.

Despite finding the same appeal as Legend with regard to being cast as Jesus, Cooper admits that "[he] never gets cast as Jesus," though he's not surprised and fairly certain he knows why. His stage persona as a rock musician doesn't really give that Christ-like vibe.

This all-new, one-time production of "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert" is not the first television special of its kind. Many viewers may be familiar with recent small-screen live adaptations of other musicals by NBC, including "The Sound of Music Live," "The Wiz Live," "Hairspray Live!" and "Grease: Live."

While these offerings may seem to be a recent phenomenon, NBC is no stranger to the teleplay. Both 1955 and 1956 found the musical adaptation of J. M. Barrie's classic "Peter Pan" making waves on TVs across America — notably the first time that a Broadway musical had ever been televised as a complete production, at that time also including almost the entire stage cast. Fittingly, "Peter Pan Live!" was also a recent NBC production, with the adaptation airing Dec. 4, 2014.

"Jesus Christ Superstar" made a name for itself in the early '70s for its infusion of rock 'n' roll with the Bible's foremost narrative. At once daring and mesmerizing, the production, which also received cinematic treatment in 1973, wasn't afraid to challenge preconceived notions and depictions of Christ and the figures that surrounded him.

At its core, though, much like the variability of the characters portrayed and the depths of their personas, Legend sees the production's music as not merely one-note. To him, the musical is "kind of a genre-bending and expanding piece," one that, "for those ... who love music and those ... who love to perform," does not have "as many boundaries as some would suggest."

Take a break from the quiet contemplation of Easter weekend and rejoice, for a renowned rock musical is about to shake up prime time. Catch John Legend, Sarah Bareilles and Alice Cooper as they're joined by an incredible cast for "Jesus Christ Superstar Live in Concert," airing Sunday, April 1, on NBC.

Seven skilled chefs aim for the ultimate culinary prize

Host Alton Brown with the "Iron Chef Gauntlet" competitors

By Andrew Warren
 TV Media

It's time to throw down: one of the biggest and most coveted prizes in culinary television is once again up for grabs, and seven incredibly talented chefs are bringing their A games to seize it.

"Iron Chef Gauntlet" returns for a second season on Wednesday, April 4, on Food Network. A companion show of sorts to "Iron Chef Showdown" (which itself is a reboot of the venerable "Iron Chef America"), "Gauntlet" brings together some of the industry's top chefs, who are all hoping to be named the next Iron Chef and adding their names to the ranks of Michael Symon, Alex Guarnaschelli, Bobby Flay and last season's "Gauntlet" winner, Stephanie Izard.

"Gauntlet's" ultimate goal is to find a chef worthy of the Iron Chef title, but there's no guarantee that the accolade will even be handed out — that's where the real suspense comes in. Through several weeks of competition overseen by the incomparable Alton Brown ("Cutthroat Kitchen"), the seven competitors will be whittled down until only one remains, but making it that far is the easy party of the battle.

In that final episode, the sole remaining chef will face three culinary battles in quick succession against Iron Chefs Guarnaschelli, Symon and Izard. Only if the challenger's total score, as determined by a panel of judges, tops that of the reigning Iron Chefs will he or she join their ranks — and presumably the next season of "Iron Chef Showdown."

The fact that the top prize isn't even guaranteed to be handed out is definitely outside of the norm for a cooking competition, but that's a big part of what sets "Iron Chef Gauntlet" apart from its peers. The chefs looking to take that title run the gamut of culinary styles, and this season there are even two Canadians in the mix. Nicole Gomes and Dale MacKay are both "Top Chef Canada" winners, and they join Miami's Timon Balloo; David LeFevre of Manhattan Beach, California; Jeanie Roland of Punta Gorda, Florida; New York's Hong Thaimée; and Kevin Tien of Washington, D.C., in competing for that sweet chef's jacket.

"Iron Chef Gauntlet" is a fun twist on cooking competitions, with one of the biggest prizes in the industry up for grabs. The second season premieres Wednesday, April 4, on Food Network.

Q&A hollywood

By Adam Thomlison
TV Media

Q: I just heard that Abby is leaving "NCIS." Why is she leaving? What is she doing next? What will "NCIS" do without her?

A: Unfortunately, all we really have so far is a growing list of things that are not making her leave. No. 1 on that list is a skincare line.

Last year, Pauley Perrette's likeness was used in ads for a skincare product. It was later revealed the ads were frauds — the product's producers had used a number of celebrity names without their permission. Unfortunately, the timing of the ads, which were making the rounds shortly before Perrette announced her departure from the show, fed rumors that she was leaving to pursue a career as a skincare skill.

Apparently the rumors have persisted. The scam was exposed in November, but Perrette was still denying it in January, when she posted on Twitter, "Just for the BILLIONTH TIME! I do NOT HAVE A SKIN CARE LINE! ...And that's not why I'm leaving the show."

Another thing that's not a factor is her relationship with the show's producers and CBS. When she first announced her departure (again on Twitter), she made a point of saying (again in all-caps), "NO MY NETWORK AND MY SHOW ARE NOT MAD AT ME!"

Q: Whatever happened to the reboot of "Cash Cab"? I've seen three episodes and nothing else.

A: How you take the answer to your question will say a lot about whether you're a glass-half-empty or glass-half-full kind of person. "Cash Cab" came and went from the Discovery schedule over the course of three weeks, but that was the plan all along.

An optimist will hear this and think it's good news because it means the show wasn't canceled (again). But a pessimist will hear this and be disappointed there are no more episodes in the immediate future.

However, there's a chance you don't have to be either. You say you've seen three episodes, but in fact six were produced for this new season. They aired over three nights, though, so it's possible you took the evening's two half-hour episodes as a single one-hour episode. But it's also possible you somehow only saw three and have three more new ones still to go.

Brace yourself for some undeniably bad news, though: the ratings for the new season were ... not great.

The show was once a mighty fixture on Discovery's schedule, running for seven years (from 2005 to 2012), airing more than 200 episodes and raking in multiple Emmys. However, the new season, which the network clearly had high hopes for, did poorly against its competition.

None of its final four episodes (which aired on Dec. 10 and 17) drew even a million viewers, and they were beaten in their time-slots by such ratings lightweights as HGTV's "Beachfront Bargain Hunt" and Investigation Discovery's "People Magazine Investigates" (no offense to either of those shows — indeed, congratulations to them on beating a well-known TV brand).
