

A photograph of two women sitting at a round table in what appears to be a cafe or restaurant. The woman on the left has long blonde hair and is smiling while talking on a mobile phone. The woman on the right has dark curly hair and is looking down at a white shopping bag she is holding. On the table are several white teacups and a teapot. A white handbag is also on the table. The background shows a window with some greenery outside.

Savor The Area's 'Local' Flavor

Take a walk around town and you'll see a rich, vibrant and diverse marketplace that has not only thrived in our town for generations, but has helped our town thrive in return. What sets our Somerset Hills community apart from other towns in New Jersey? Many would say it's our unique local character and downtown diversity.

Locally owned businesses are the very cornerstone of what sets us apart from other communities. Not only does the money spent at those establishments often stay in our community, but a thriving business district also contributes tax revenues to our local government, lessening the burden on residents.

In the long run, it really "pays" to shop local and support your neighbors' business ventures. On the following pages, you'll find a veritable smorgasbord of local businesses that contribute to the unique flavor of our community. Take time to sample each one and savor the local flavor.

Enjoy!

THE BOOKWORM

The Bookworm, located at 99 Claremont Road in Bernardsville, is an independent general bookstore celebrating 32 years this year and featuring books for all ages.

The staff members are avid readers and book lovers who would be pleased to help you find the perfect book.

With new books and gift items arriving daily, The Bookworm is a perfect place to shop for Mother's Day, Father's Day and for those grads on your list.

New books of note include: "The Music Shop" by Rachel Joyce, "Female Persuasion" by Meg Wolitzer and another in the Amos Decker series by David Baldacci, "The Fallen." There are several great new cookbooks too, including, "Giada's Italy" by Giada De Laurentiis, to name one of many.

In our extensive children's section, we have "Hello Lighthouse" by Caldecott Medal winner Sophie Blackall and many, many other new books for young adult and middle grades.

The Bookworm has a beautiful selection of cards, journals, note cards and gift books. For grads, we have "You Can! Words of Wisdom from The Little Engine That Could," and many other charming books for graduation, from preschool to college.

As always, visit 'the front table' for an ever-changing selection of unique coffee table books for a gift to yourself or someone else. We also carry a selection of local author titles. Donna Baier Stein's new book of poetry, "Letting Rain Have Its Say," is now in stock, as well as her other books. Award-winning poet Wanda Praisner also has a new book of poetry, "To Illuminate the Way," and Julie Maloney's new novel, "A Matter of Chance."

The Bookworm orders daily, so if you don't see what you're looking for, please ask. In most cases, your special order will be available the next day.

For book clubs, we always have plenty of great suggestions, and if you mention that it's for your book club, you will receive a 15 percent discount. The Bookworm also provides monthly publications free for new books.

BORREGAARD

Known for its charm and elegant taste in such categories as wine accessories, barware and gifts to modernist art and 19th century peat buckets, BORREGAARD has eclectic appeal.

Housed in a turn-of-the-century hardware store at 210 Main Street in historic Gladstone, BORREGAARD's well-selected treasures old and new will delight.

On a casual browse, you will find everything – from local artist Pamela Cassidy's wine towels, coffee table books by Diane Keaton and Charlotte Moss, in2Green cotton throws, gorgeous Voluspa candles, vintage ashtrays and bookends, all beside actor Richard Widmark's 19th Century maple apothecary cabinet. Katherine Hepburn's "NO TRESPASSING" sign hangs cheekily from the wall, belied by the friendly, browsable local shop.

The complementary (and complimentary!) advice of the on-site design professional will help guide you in decorating your special space – whether it is for your first home, Soho loft or country estate. Do not miss this treasure trove of delights not found anywhere else.

BORREGAARD is a unique, browsable, friendly, interesting shop put together with a curator's eye. Stop in and see what you've been missing!

STUDIO 7 FINE ART GALLERY

Studio 7 Fine Art Gallery in Bernardsville was founded 15 years ago as a place for New Jersey artists to exhibit and sell their work.

Over the years, it expanded from watercolor, pastel and oil paintings into offering art glass, bronze sculptures, painted glass lighting and Murano glass jewelry.

The gallery is 2,500 square feet, occupying the entire second floor of a historic building in Bernardsville, which served as the town dance hall in the 1870s.

That party atmosphere is still apparent at the First Friday BernARTsville Art Walk Artist Receptions, started by the gallery in 2007.

The gallery's May and June exhibit will feature oil paintings and drawings by four masters of the human form: Anthony Panzera of Mendham, Ephraim Rubenstein of Maryland and Costa Vavagiakis and Mark Gonzales, both of Brooklyn. "The Naked and the Nude" will run from Wednesday, May 2, through Saturday, June 30. Artist receptions, which are free and open to the public, will be held from 6 to 9 p.m. Friday, May 4, and Saturday, June 2.

In July and August, Studio 7 will be hosting a summer show with new work by the 36 artists represented by the gallery.

Gallery hours are Wednesday through Saturday, 10-4pm. The space is available for rent for private parties and meetings. Contact her at (908) 963-0365 or pskjpalmer@verizon.net. www.studio7artgallery.com

TRUELEAF KITCHENS

TrueLeaf Kitchens of Basking Ridge has partnered with the non-profit, Diva for a Day Foundation, to host the second annual Dream Kitchen Tour and Tasting, which will take place from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Friday, April 27. The fundraiser benefits Diva for a Day, which provides a day of spa treatments and pampering to women battling cancer, offering them an opportunity to escape the day-to-day stresses they face. Pictured are, from left, Peggy Matzen and Ellen Moore, of Diva for a Day, and Jim and Eileen Barna from TrueLeaf Kitchens.

TRUELEAF KITCHENS

When the ladies from Diva for a Day Foundation proposed their fundraising idea to Eileen and Jim Barna, owners of TrueLeaf Kitchens in Basking Ridge, they knew they needed TrueLeaf's help in order to make their event happen. The fundraiser they wanted to do would be a kitchen tour with "tastings" from local restaurants featured in each of the eight kitchens on the tour.

Fortunately, the Barnas were excited about the idea of helping the charity and doing the second annual local kitchen tour.

The Diva For A Day Foundation, Inc. is a New Jersey-based non-profit organization that provides women who are battling cancer with an opportunity to escape from the day-to-day stresses they face through a day of pampering and spa treatments. The foundation has already honored more than 850 women across the country. All divas are nominated through their website by social workers, nurses, family or friends.

Diva For A Day co-founder Debbie Sestokas says, "The Diva for a Day program brings light into the hearts of those who are chosen and joy to everyone that gives."

Eileen and Jim Barna, owners of TrueLeaf Kitchens in Basking Ridge, design and create kitchens and luxury baths, laundry and mud rooms, custom built-ins and entertainment areas. They believe that creating the right space in your home will truly transform the way you live.

They also believe in transforming lives through donations and acts of kindness, so they are honored to have this perfect opportunity to help women battling cancer.

Thanks to the efforts of Diva for a Day, TrueLeaf Kitchens, six local restaurants and eight very generous homeowners, the second annual Dream Kitchen Tour and Tasting will take place from 11 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. Friday, April 27.

All of the kitchens this year are located in the Basking Ridge area. There will only be 200 tickets sold for $50 each, and they can be purchased at www.divaforaday.org. Come escape for the day while you help women battling cancer escape for a day too!
